Determination of validity of elections.

22. (1) If the validity of any election of a councillor is brought in question by any person qualified either to be elected or to vote at the election to which such question refers, such person may, at any time within ten days after the date of the declaration of the result of the election, apply to the district Judge of the district within which the election has been or should have been held :

[1]* * * * * * * *

Powers of Judge holding inquiry.

(2) [2][An inquiry shall thereupon be held by a Judge, not below the grade of an Assistant Judge, appointed by the [3][[4][State] Government] either specially for the case or for such cases generally, and such Judge] may, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, and subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), pass an order confirming or amending the declared result of the election, or setting the election aside. For the purposes of the said inquiry the said Judge may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and compel them to give evidence as if he were a Civil Court, and he may also direct by whom the whole or any part of the costs of any such inquiry shall be paid, and such costs shall be recoverable as if they had been awarded in a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure. The decision or order shall be conclusive. If he sets aside an election, a date shall forthwith be fixed and the necessary steps taken for holding a fresh one.

(b) if in any case to which clause (a) does not apply, the validity of an election is in dispute betweeen two or more candidates, the Judge shall, after a scrutiny and computation of the votes recorded in favour of each such candidate, declare the candidate who is found to have the greatest number of valid votes in his favour, to have been duly elected : Scrutiny of votes and declaration in other cases.

Provided that for the purpose of such computation no vote shall be reckoned as valid if the Judge finds that any corrupt practice was committed by any person, known or unknown in giving or obtaining it :

[1][Provided further that after such computation, if any equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of one vote will entitle any of the candidates to be declared elected, one additional vote shall be added to the total number of valid votes found to have been recorded in favour of the candidate, or candidates, as the case may be, selected by lot drawn in the presence of the Judge in such manner as he may determine.]

(4) A person shall be deemed to have committed a corrupt practice within the meaning of the last preceding sub-section, What is a corrupt practice.

(i) who with a view to inducing any voter to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, offers or gives any money or valuable consideration, or holds out any promise of individual profit or holds out any threat of injury, to any person, or,

(ii) who gives, procures, or abets the giving of a vote in the name of a voter who is not the person giving such vote [2][, or

(iii) who hires or procures, whether on payment or otherwise, any vehicle or vessel for the conveyance of any voter to, or from, any polling station :

Provided that—

(a) the hiring of a vehicle or vessel by a candidate for himself or his family or an election agent shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause;

(b) the hiring of a vehicle or vessel by a voter or by several voters at their joint cost for the purpose of conveying him or them to, or from, any such polling station shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause, if the vehicle or vessel so hired is a vehicle or vessel not propelled by mechanical power;

(c) the use of any public transport vehicle or vessel or any tram-car or railway carriage by any voter at his own cost for the purpose of going to, or coming from, any such polling station shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause.]

Candidate when deemed to have committed corrupt practice.

And a corrupt practice shall be deemed to have been committed by a candidate, if it has been committed with his knowledge and consent, or by a person who is acting under the general or special authority of such candidate with reference to the election.

Promise of individual profit.

Explanation.—A " promise of individual profit " includes a promise for the benefit of the person himself, or of any one in whom he is interested. It does not include a promise to vote for or against any particular municipal measure.

Mere irregularities and informalities not to invalidate election.

(5) If the validity of the election is brought in question only on the ground of any error by the officer or officers charged with carrying out the rules made under clause (c) [1][of sub-section (1)] of section 11, or of an irregularity or informality not corruptly caused, the Judge, shall not set aside the election.

Disqualification of candidate for corrupt practice.

(6) If the Judge sets aside an election under clause (a) of sub-section (3) he may, if he thinks fit, declare any person by whom any corrupt practice has been committed within the meaning of this section, to be disqualified from being a candidate in that or any other municipal district for a term of years not exceeding seven, and the Judge's decision shall be conclusive : provided, however, that such person may by an order which the [2][[3]State] Government] is hereby empowered to make if [4][it] shall think fit, in that behalf, be at any time relieved from such disqualification.

Corrupt practices : criminal offences and procedure.

[5][22A. (1) (a) Whoever in any election under this Act, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, shall, with a view to inducing any voter to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, offer or give any money or valuable consideration or hold out any promise of individual profit or hold out any threat of injury to any person, [6][or]

(b) whoever shall give, procure, or abet the giving of a vote in the name of a voter, who is not the person giving such vote,

(b) soliciting the vote of any voter ; or

(c) persuading any voter not to vote for any particular candidate ; or

(d) persuading any voter not to vote at the election; or

(e) exhibiting any notice or sign (other than an official notice) relating to the election.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees.

(3) Any offence punishable under this section shall be cognizable.

Penalty for disorderly conduct in or near polling stations.

22C. (1) No person shall, on the date or dates on which a poll is taken at any polling station—

(a) use or operate within or at the entrance of the polling station, or in any public or private place in the neighbourhood thereof, any apparatus for amplifying or reproducing the human voice, such as a megaphone or a loud speaker, or

(b) shout, or otherwise act in a disorderly manner, within or at the entrance of the polling station or in any public or private place in the neighbourhood thereof, so as to cause annoyance to any person visiting the polling station for the poll, or so as to interfere with the work of the officers and other persons on duty at the polling station.

Powers of [1][State] Government and of the Commissioner to decide whether vacancy has occurred.

[2][(3) In every case, the authority competent to decide whether a vacancy has occurred under this section shall be the Collector. The Collector may give his decision either on an application made to him by any person or on his own motion. Until the Collector decides that the vacancy has arisen, the councillor shall not be disabled under sub-section (2) from continuing to be a councillor. [3][Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Collector may, within a period of fifteen days from the date of such decision, appeal] to the [4][State] Government in the case of city municipalities and to the Commissioner in other cases and the orders passed by the [1][State] Government or the Commissioner in such appeal shall be final:

Provided that no order shall be passed under this sub-section by the Collector against any councillor without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.]

Resignation.

[4][15A. Any councillor may resign his office by giving notice in writing to that effect to the president, and the president may resign his office by giving notice in writing to that effect to the Commissioner.]

Liability to removal from office.

16. The [5][[1][State] Government] [6][in the case of City Municipalities, and the Commissioner in other cases,] if [7][it or he] thinks fit, on the recommendation of the Municipality, may remove any councillor elected or appointed under this Act, if such councillor has been guilty of misconduct in the discharge of his duties, or of any disgraceful conduct, or has become incapable of performing his duties as a councillor.

Term of office.

[8][17. (1)] Councillors nominated or elected at a general election under this Act shall save as provided in the next following section, or unless they become in the meantime disabled, or are removed from office under section 16, or section 179, hold office for a term of [9][four] years, extensible by order of the Commissioner to a term not exceeding in the aggregate [10][five]* years if on any occasion, the Commissioner shall think fit, for reasons which shall be notified together with the order in the [11][Official Gazette], so to extend the same:

[12][Provided that before such order is made the Commissioner shall invite and consider objections, if any, from the voters entitled to vote at the municipal election in the municipal district concerned.]

Determination of validity of elections.

22. (1) If the validity of any election of a councillor is brought in question by any person qualified either to be elected or to vote at the election to which such question refers, such person may, at any time within ten days after the date of the declaration of the result of the election, apply to the district Judge of the district within which the election has been or should have been held :

[1]* * * * * * * *

Powers of Judge holding inquiry.

(2) [2][An inquiry shall thereupon be held by a Judge, not below the grade of an Assistant Judge, appointed by the [3][[4][State] Government] either specially for the case or for such cases generally, and such Judge] may, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, and subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), pass an order confirming or amending the declared result of the election, or setting the election aside. For the purposes of the said inquiry the said Judge may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and compel them to give evidence as if he were a Civil Court, and he may also direct by whom the whole or any part of the costs of any such inquiry shall be paid, and such costs shall be recoverable as if they had been awarded in a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure. The decision or order shall be conclusive. If he sets aside an election, a date shall forthwith be fixed and the necessary steps taken for holding a fresh one.

[5][2A) All applications received under sub-section (1)—

(a) in which the validity of the election of councillors elected to represent the same constituency is in question shall be heard by the same Judge ; and

CHAPTER III.

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

26. The following provisions shall be observed with respect to the meetings of a Municipality :— Provisions in regard to meetings of a Municipality.

(1) Except in periodical Municipalities and in Municipalities at hill-stations there shall be held fou r ordinary general meetings in each year for the disposal of general business, on or about the tenth day of the months of January, April, July and October, respectively, and such other ordinary general meetings as the president may find necessary. In Municipalities at hill-stations there shall be held one ordinary general meeting on or about the tenth day of April, and not less than one other ordinary general meeting for the purpose aforesaid, in each year. In every periodical Municipality there shall be such and so many ordinary general meetings, as the president thereof shall from time to time determine. It shall be the duty of the president to fix the dates for all ordinary general meetings. Ordinary general meetings.

(2) The president may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon the written request of not less than one-fourth of the councillors, call a special general meeting. Special general meetings.

(3) Seven clear days' notice of an ordinary general meeting, and three clear days' notice of a special general meeting, specifying the time and place at which such meeting is to be held and the business to be transacted thereat shall be circulated to the councillors, and posted up at the municipal office or the local kacheri or some other public building in the municipal district. The said notice shall include any motion or proposition which a councillor shall have given written notice not less than ten days previous to the meeting of his intention to bring forward thereat, and, in the case of a special general meeting, any motion or proposition mentioned in any written request made for such meeting. Notice to be given of meetings.

(4) Every meeting of a Municipality shall, except for reasons to be specified in the notice convening the meeting, be held in the buildings used as a municipal office by such Municipality. Municipal meetings to be held at municipal office.

(5) Every meeting shall, in the absence of both the president and vice-president, be presided over by such one of the councillors present as may be chosen by the meeting to be chairman for the occasion, and such chairman shall exercise thereat the powers vested in the president by clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 24. Every meeting how presided over in the absence of the president and the vice-president.

(6) Every meeting shall be open to the public unless the presiding authority deems any inquiry or deliberation pending before the Municipality such as should be held in private, and provided that the said authority may at any time cause any person to be removed who interrupts the proceedings. Meeting must ordinarily be open to the public.

(7) If in a City Municipality less than one-third, and in any other Municipality less than one-half, of the whole number of councillors be present at a meeting at any time from the beginning to the end thereof, the presiding authority shall adjourn the meeting to such hour on the following or some other future days as he Number of councillors required to form a quorum.

may reasonably fix, and a notice of such adjournment shall be fixed up in the municipal office, and the business which would have been brought before the original meeting, had there been a quorum thereat, shall be brought before the adjourned meeting and may be disposed of at such meeting or at any subsequent adjournment thereof whether there be a quorum present or not.

What business to be transacted at meetings and order of business how to be settled.

(8) Except with the permission of the presiding authority, which permission shall not be given in the case of a motion or proposition to modify or cancel any resolution within three months after the passing thereof, no business shall be transacted and no proposition shall be discussed at any general meeting unless it has been mentioned in the notice convening such meeting or, in the case of a special general meeting, in the written request for such meeting. The order in which any business that may be transacted or any proposition that may be discussed at any meeting in accordance with this sub-section shall be brought forward at such meeting, shall be determined by the presiding authority, who in case it is proposed by any member to give priority to any particular item of such business, or to any particular proposition shall put the proposal to the meeting and be guided by the majority of votes given for or against the proposal.

Minutes of proceedings to be kept.

(9) In every City Municipality there shall be kept in English, and, if the Municipality so resolve, in the vernacular language also, and in every other Municipality there shall be kept in the vernacular language, and if the Municipality so resolve in English, either in lieu of or in addition to the vernacular, minutes of the names of the councillors and of the [1][Government Officers], if any, present under the provisions of sub-section (14), and of the proceedings at each general meeting, in a book to be provided for this purpose, which shall be signed, as soon as practicable, by the presiding authority of such meeting, and shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any inhabitant of the municipal district.

All questions to be decided by a majority of votes.

(10) All questions shall be decided by a majority of votes of the councillors present and voting, the presiding authority, save as provided in sub-section (2) of section 24, having a second or casting vote in all cases of equality of votes. Votes shall be taken and results recorded in such manner as may be prescribed by rules in that behalf for the time being in force under clause (a) of section 46.

Adjournments of meetings.

(11) Any general meeting may, with the consent of a majority of the councillors present, be adjourned from time to time ; but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than that left undisposed of at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Modification and cancellation of resolutions.

(12) No resolution of a Municipality shall be modified or cancelled within three months after the passing thereof except by a resolution supported by not less than one-half of the whole number of councillors and passed at the general meeting whereof notice shall have been given fulfilling the requirements of sub-section (3) and setting forth fully the resolution which it is proposed to modify or cancel at such meeting and the motion or proposition for the modification or cancellation of such resolution.

[1] These words were substituted for the words "servants of the Crown" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

(13) Except for reasons which the presiding authority deems emergent, no business relating to any work which is being executed for the Municipality by a Government Executive Engineer, or to any education matter, shall be transacted at any meeting of a Municipality unless, at least fifteen days previous to such meeting, a letter has been addressed to the said Executive Engineer or to the Educational Inspector of the district, informing him of the intention to transact such business thereat, and of the motions or propositions to be brought forward concerning such business. Notice of certain business to be given to the Government Executive Engineer or Educational Inspector.

(14) (a) The members of the Sanitary Board, and the Executive Engineer, Educational Inspector and Deputy Sanitary Commissioner of a district, and the Civil Surgeon in a district when charged with any of the duties of a health officer therein, if not members of a Municipality within the district, shall have the right of being present at any meeting of such Municipality, and, with the consent of the Municipality, each of them may take part at such meeting in the discussion or consideration of any question, on which, in virtue of the duties of his office, he considers his opinion or the information which he can supply will be useful to such Municipality : Certain servants of the Crown may attend meetings of Municipalities.

Provided that the said officers shall not, unless they are members of the Municipality, be entitled to vote upon any such question.

(b) If it shall appear to a Municipality that the presence of the Executive Engineer, Educational Inspector, Deputy Sanitary Commissioner or Civil Surgeon of or in the district, is desirable for the purpose aforesaid at any future meeting of such Municipality, it shall be competent to such Municipality, by letter addressed to such officer not less than fifteen days previous to the intended meeting, to require his presence thereat ; and the said officer unless prevented by sickness, or other reasonable cause, shall be bound to attend such meeting : Municipalities may require the presence of the said servants of the Crown at their meetings.

Provided that such officer on receipt of such letter may, if unable to be present himself, instruct a Deputy or Assistant or other competent subordinate as to his views, and may send him to the meeting as his representative, instead of appearing thereat in person.

[1][26A. A Municipal Commissioner shall have the same right of being present at a meeting of the Municipality and of taking part in the discussions thereat as a councillor and with the consent of a majority of the councillors present, ascertained by a show of hands, without discussion, may at any time make a statement or explanation of facts, but he shall not be at liberty to vote upon, or to make any proposition at such meeting.] Right of Municipal Commissioner to be present and to speak at municipal meetings.

27. (1) In every Municipality there shall be a committee called the managing committee, consisting of such number of councillors not exceeding nine or less than four, as may have been elected for a period not exceeding one year, in accordance with rules under clause (a) of section 46 : Managing committees.

Provided that in any municipal district where there is a Chamber of Commerce, such Chamber shall, if the [2][Provincial Government] so directs be entitled to elect one councillor to be a member of the managing committee.

Powers of managing committees.

(2) The managing committee shall, subject

(i) to any limitations prescribed by the Municipality specially in this behalf and generally by rules made under clause (a) of section 46, and exercise all the powers of the Municipality :

(ii) to the provisions of Chapter XIII [1][and Chapter XIIIA],

Provided that no managing committee shall exercise—

(a) any powers in connection with any school or educational institution in respect of which a committee is appointed under section 28, or

(b) any powers with which any committee appointed under section 29 is vested,

[2][(c) any powers of the Pilgrim Committee appointed under section 27A.]

Pilgrim Committee.

[3][27A. (1) In every municipality notified by [4][the Provincial Government] in this behalf there shall be a committee called the Pilgrim Committee consisting [5][of four councillors of whom one shall be the President of the Municipality and the other three shall be elected in accordance with rules made under clause (a) of section 46 and of two persons appointed by the Provincial Government, both of whom may be salaried servants of the Crown.]

(2) The members of the Pilgrim Committee shall hold office for the term of office of the councillors and thereafter up to the date on which a new Pilgrim Committee is constituted in accordance with the provisions of this section. In the case of supersession of the municipality or of the Pilgrim Committee, a new Pilgrim Committee shall be constituted by the Commissioner. Such Committee shall consist of six persons nominated by the Commissioner and shall continue until the municipality is re-established, and a new Pilgrim Committee is constituted in accordance with the provisions of this section, or, in case of supersession of the Pilgrim Committee, until the Pilgrim Committee is re-established.

(3) The Pilgrim Committee shall manage and administer the pilgrim fund established under proviso (c) to section 51 and shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the municipality in respect of the said fund, subject to such limitations and restrictions as may be prescribed by the municipality by rules made in this behalf under clause (aa) of section 46.

(4) All the provisions of this Act relating to the duties, powers, liabilities, disqualifications and disabilities of councillors shall be applicable, so far as may be, to the members nominated on the Pilgrim Committee.

(5) In the event of the death, resignation, disqualification, disability or removal of a nominated member previous to the expiry of his term of office, the vacancy shall be filled up by the appointment of a person thereto who shall hold office so long only as the person in whose place he is appointed would have held it if the vacancy had not occurred :

(6) Section 36 shall not apply to the Pilgrim Committee ; provided that the municipality shall have power, at any time, to call for any extract from any proceedings of the Pilgrim Committee, and for any return, statement of account or report concerning or connected with any matter with which the Pilgrim Committee deals and every such requisition shall, without unreasonable delay, be complied with by the Pilgrim Committee.

(7) The provisions of sections 170, 171 and 172 shall, so far as may be, apply to the Pilgrim Fund Account and the Pilgrim Committee shall, with respect to the preparation and submission to the municipality of its annual budget, follow the following procedure, namely :—

"The Pilgrim Committee shall in sufficient time submit its annual budget and all alterations therein to the municipality for consideration, and, if the municipality agree to it, for its incorporation in the general municipal budget. If the municipality do not agree to the budget as framed by the Pilgrim Committee, they shall return it to the Pilgrim Committee, for reconsideration, either in whole or in part, together with any alterations which they may recommend, and if the Pilgrim Committee agrees to these alterations, the budget so altered shall be incorporated in the general municipal budget. If the municipality and the Pilgrim Committee fail to reach an agreement, the budget with a statement of the points in dispute shall be referred by the municipality to the Commissioner, whose decision on such points shall be final."

(8) The provisions of sections 173, 174, 175, 178 and 179 shall apply to a Pilgrim Committee, and in their application to a Pilgrim Committee the said sections shall be construed, so far as may be, as if for the word 'municipality' occurring in the said sections the words 'Pilgrim Committee' were substituted, and as if the words "other than a city municipality in such taluka" occurring in sub-section (2) of section 173 were omitted.]

School committees.

28. The Municipality may appoint, subject to such limitations as are prescribed by the rules for the time being in force under section 46 and subject also to the proviso contained in [1][section 58], a committee consisting of such councillors as they think fit for managing all or any primary or other schools vested in or maintained by the Municipality or for conducting the business of the Municipality in respect of any educational institutions aided by the Municipality.

Other executive committees.

29. Subject to the limitations prescribed by the rules aforesaid, the Municipality may appoint, for a period not exceeding one year, any such committee or such or so many committees consisting of such councillors as they think fit for any purpose or respectively for any of the purposes, other than, those specified in section 28, for which a managing committee may, under section 27, exercise the powers of a Municipality, and may invest each committee so appointed with such of the said powers as may be necessary or expedient for the fulfilment of the purpose for which it is appointed [2][not being, where a Pilgrim Committee is appointed, powers or duties referred to in section 27A].

Consultative committees.

30. The Municipality may from time to time appoint such or so many other committees consisting of such councillors as they think fit, and may refer to such committees for inquiry and report, or for opinion, such special sub ects relating to the purposes of this Act as the Municipality shall think fit, and may at any time discontinue, or alter the constitution of, any such committee. The Municipality may direct that the report of any such committee shall be made to the managing committee, instead of to the Municipality.

---

[1] This word and figures were substituted for "section 59" by s. 2 of the Bombay District Municipal Act (1901) Amendment Act, 1902 (Bom. 3 of 1902).

[2] These words, figures and letter were inserted by Bom. 4 of 1930, s. 2 (iii).

When persons other than councillors may serve on committees.

31. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, it shall be lawful for the Municipality from time to time, by a resolution supported by not less than one-half of the whole number of councillors, to appoint, as members of any committee under section 28, 29 or 30, any pesons of either sex, who are not councillors, but who may in the opinion of such Municipality possess special qualifications for serving on such committee [1][or who represent any authority or interest]: provided that the number of persons so appointed on any committee shall not exceed one-third of the total number of the members of such committee.

Duties, etc., of such persons.

All the provisions of this Act relating to the duties, powers, liabilities, disqualifications and disabilities of councillors shall, [2]* * * * * * * be applicable so far as may be to such persons.

Casual vacancies—re-eligibility.

32. A vacancy occurring in a managing committee shall, as soon as possible, and a vacancy occurring in any other committee may be filled up by the election of a member from among the general body of councillors subject to the same provisions as those under which the member whose place is to be filled up, was elected. A councillor shall be eligible at any time for re-election as a member of any such committee notwithstanding that he has previously been a member of that committee.

When Chairman to be ex-officio.

33. (1) The president or vice-president, if appointed a member of any committee, shall be ex-officio chairman thereof.

[3]* * * * *

When no ex-officio chairman, Municipality may appoint chairman.

(2) The Municipality may appoint a chairman for every committee of which there is no ex-officio chairman.

When ex-officio or appointed chairman does not attend meeting, committee may appoint chairman of meeting.

(3) Every committee, of which there is an ex-officio chairman or a chairman appointed by the Municipality, shall, at each meeting which such chairman does not attend as chairman, appoint from its members a chairman for such meeting.

If there is no chairman ex-officio or appointed by the Municipality, committee may appoint chairman.

(4) Every committee, of which there is no ex-officio chairman or chairman appointed by the Municipality, shall appoint from time to time its own chairman from among its own members.

Procedure at meetings.

34. (1) The provisions of sub-sections (4), (9), (10) and (14) of section 26 shall be complied with in all proceedings of committees as if meetings of committees were included in all references to meetings of a Municipality contained in those provisions, and as if for the word "Municipality", where it occurs in tho proviso to clause (a) of sub-section (14) of section 26, there were substituted the word "committee":

[3] The proviso which was added by Bom. 4 of 1930, s. 2 (iv), was omitted by Bom. 9 of 1938, s. 5.

[1][Provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-section (9) of section 26, committees may record their proceedings either in English or in the vernacular language, as they may think fit.]

(2) Committees may meet and adjourn as they think proper, but the chairman of the committee may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon the written request of the president of the Municipality or of not less than two members of a committee, call a special meeting of such committee. Committees may meet when they think proper.

(3) No business shall be transacted at any committee meeting unless more than one-half of the members of the committee be present thereat. Number of members required to form a quorum at committee meetings.

35. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding section the chairman of the committee, whenever it appears to him unnecessary to convene a meeting, may, instead of so doing, circulate a written proposition of his own, or of any other member of the committee, or of any executive officer of the Municipality, for the observations and votes of the members of the committee. Procedure by circular.

(2) Previous to circulating any such proposition as aforesaid, the chairman may, if he thinks fit, and, if the business to which it relates is of the nature described in sub-section (13) of section 26, shall obtain thereupon the remarks, if any, which any [2][Government officer], not a councillor, whose presence the Municipality would be entitled to require under the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (14) of section 26, desires to record. Propositions when to be sent to servants of the [3][Government] for remarks.

(3) The decision on any propositions so circulated shall be in accordance with the majority of votes of the members of the committee who vote upon it, unless a special meeting is convened to consider the said proposition. Decisions how to be taken on propositions circulated; and how to be recorded.

(4) Every decision arrived at by the committee under this section shall be recorded in the minute-book kept under sub-section (9) of section 26.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the [4][Commissioner] may by notification authorize the adoption by any Municipality specified in such notification not being a City Municipality, of the procedure prescribed by this section for the disposal of any business, whenever the president of such Municipality may deem it unnecessary to convene a general meeting for the purpose of such business. Procedure by circular when applicable to other municipal business.

36. (1) Every committee shall conform to any instructions that may from time to time be given to them by the Municipality; the Municipality may, at any time, call for any extract from any proceedings of any committee, and for any return, statement or account or report concerning or connected with any matter with which any committee has been authorized or directed to deal, and every such requisition shall, without unreasonable delay, be complied with by the committee so called upon. Subordination of committees to instructions of Municipality and compliance with requisitions of Municipality.

Order subject to revision and appeal.

(2) Every order passed by a managing committee or by a committee appointed under section 28 or 29, other than orders under sub-section (3) of section 65, shall be subject to such revision, and open to such appeal as may be required or allowed in respect thereof by any rules of the Municipality for the time being in force under section 46.

Powers, duties and functions may be delegated to officers whose expenses may be paid.

37. Any powers or duties or executive functions which may be exercised or performed by or on behalf of the Municipality may be delegated in accordance with rules to be made by the Municipality in this behalf, to the president or to the vice-president, or to the chairman of the managing, school or other committee, or to one or more stipendiary or honorary officers, but without prejudice to any powers that may have been conferred on a chief officer in a City Municipality under Chapter XIII or on any committee by or under section 27, [1][27A], 28 or 29 ; and each person, who exercises any power or performs any duty or function so delegated, may be paid all expenses necessarily incurred by him thereir :

[2][Provided that in a municipal district for which there is a Municipal Commissioner the powers or duties or executive functions under this Act or under any rule or by-law made hereunder conferred or imposed upon or vested in the Municipal Commissioner shall not be delegated save as provided in section 186-M.]

Acts and proceedings of Municipality and committees not vitiated by disqualifications, etc., of members thereof.

38. (1) No disqualification of, or defect in the election or appointment of, any person acting as councillor, or as the president or presiding authority of a general meeting or as chairman of a committee appointed under this Act, shall be deemed to vitiate any act or proceeding of the Municipality or of any such committee, as the case may be, in which such person has taken part, whenever the majority of persons, parties to such act or proceeding, were entitled to act.

Proceedings of meetings to be good and valid, unil the contrary is proved.

(2) Until the contrary is proved every meeting of the municipality, or of a committee appointed under this Act, in respect of the proceedings whereof a minute has been made and signed in accordance with this Act, shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all the members of the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly qualified ; and where the proceedings are the proceedings of a committee, such committee shall be deemed to have been duly constituted and to have had the power to deal with the matters referred to in the minute.

Vacancy not to affect Municipality' s proceedings.

(3) During any vacancy in a Municipality or committee the continuing councillors or members may act as if no vacancy had occurred.

Joint committees of two or more Municipalities or other local bodies.

39. A Municipality may from time to time—

(a) join with any other Municipality or with any local board, cantonment authority, sanitary board, [3][sanitary committee, panchayat] or committee appointed for an area notified under Chapter XIV, or with more than one such Municipality, board, [4][authority, panchayat or committee]—

(b) enter, subject to the sanction of the [1][[2]State] Government] into an agreement with a Municipality, cantonment authority, [3][local board, panchayat] or committee appointed for an area notified as aforesaid [4][or with a combination of any such bodies], regarding the levy of octroi duty whereby the octroi duties respectively leviable by the bodies so contracting may be levied together instead of separately within the limits of the area [5]* * * * * subject to the control of the said bodies. Agreement for joint levy of octroi.

[6][Explanation.—For the purpose of this clause, octroi duty includes a terminal tax.]

[7][Where a municipality has requested the concurrence of any other local authority under the provisions of the preceding paragraph in respect of any matter and such other local authority has refused to concur, the Commissioner may pass such orders as he may deem fit, requiring the concurrence of such other local authority, not being a cantonment authority, in the matter aforesaid ; and such other local authority shall comply with such orders.]

If any difference of opinion arises between local bodies acting under this section, the decision thereupon of the [1][[2]State] Government], or of such officer as [8][it] appoints in this behalf, shall be final :

[9][Provided that where one of the local bodies concerned is a cantonment authority, any such decision shall be subject to the concurrence of the Central Government.]

(6) Contracts.

40. (1) Every Municipality shall be competent, subject to the [10][restriction] contained in sub-section (2), to lease, sell or otherwise transfer any moveable or immovable property which may, for the purposes of this Act, have become vested in or been acquired by them, and so far as is not inconsistent with the provisions and purposes of this Act, to enter into and perform all such contracts as they may consider necessary or expedient in order to carry into effect the said provisions and purposes. Competency of Municipality to lease, sell and contract.

(2) In the case [11][of every lease or sale of land under sub-section (1) of section 90 and] of every lease of immovable property for a term exceeding seven years, and of every sale or other transfer, of any such property the previous sanction of the Commissioner is required. (iv) the amount for which, or the rate at which, it is desired to make such classes liable;

[1][(iv-a) in the case of a rate on buildings or lands or both, the basis, for each class, of the valuation on which such rate is to be imposed;]

(v) all other matters, which the [2][[3][State] Government] may so require to be specified.

(b) When such resolution has been passed, the Municipality shall publish the form of rules so prepared with a notice in the form of Schedule A prefixed thereto.

(c) Any inhabitant of the municipal district objecting to the imposition of the said tax, or to the amount or rate proposed, or to the class of persons or property to be made liable thereto, or to any exemptions proposed, may within one month from the publication of the said notice send his objection in writing to the Municipality, and the Municipality shall take all such objections into consideration, or shall authorize a committee to consider the same and report thereon, and, unless they decide to abandon[4]* *the proposed tax in accordance with such objections, shall submit the same with their opinion thereon, [5][and any modifications, proposed in accordance therewith] together with the notice and rules aforesaid, in the case of a City Municipality, to the [2][[3][State] Government] and in the case of any other Municipality, to the Commissioner.

Power to sanction, modify and impose conditions.

61. The [2][[3][State] Government], or the Commissioner, as the case may be, may either refuse to sanction the rules submitted, or may return them to the Municipality for further consideration; or if no objection, or no objection which is in [6][its or his] opinion sufficient, was made to the proposed tax within one month from the publication of the said notice, may sanction the said rules either—

(a) without modification, or

(b) subject—

(i) to such modifications not involving an increase of the amount to be imposed, or

(ii) to such conditions as to the application within the municipal district to any purpose or purposes of this Act specified in such conditions, of the whole or any part of the proceeds of such tax, as [7][it or he] deems fit.

Publication of sanctioned rules with notice.

62. All rules sanctioned under section 61 with all modifications subject to which the sanction is given, shall be published by the Municipality in the district for which they are prescribed together with a notice reciting the sanction and the date and serial number thereof, and the tax as prescribed by the rules so published shall, from a date which shall be specified in such notice and which shall not be less than one month from the publication of such notice, be imposed accordingly, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied by the Municipality in accordance with all conditions, if any, subject to which under section 61 the sanction was given:

Provided that—

(a) a tax leviable by the year—

(i) shall not come into force except on one of the following dates, viz., the first day of April—the first day of July—the first day of October—the first day of January [8][in any year], and

(d) the annual letting value or other valuation on which the property is assessed ; and

[3][(1A) in assessing a tax on building or lands, where the valuation determined under clause (d) of sub-section (1) of this section is the annual letting value, a sum equal to ten per centum of the said valuation shall be deducted therefrom in lieu of all allowance for repairs or on any other account whatsoever].

Power to inspect.

(2) For the purpose of making such assessment on property as aforesaid, the Municipality may from time to time appoint any person or persons, whether councillors or not, and whether remunerated or not ; and any person or persons so appointed may for such purpose make an inspection of any such property :

[4][Provided that in a municipal district for which there is a Municipal Commissioner such Municipal Commissioner may make such inspection.]

Returns to be furnished.

(3) On the requisition of the Municipality or of such person [5][or of the Municipal Commissioner, as the case may be,] the owner or occupier of any such building or land shall, within such reasonable period as shall be specified in the requisition, be bound to furnish a true return to the best of his knowledge or belief and subscribed with his signature—

(a) as to the name and place of abode of the owner or occupier or of both ;

(b) as to the dimensions of such building or land and the annual letting value or other valuation thereof.

Publication of notice of assessment-list.

64. When the assessment-list has been completed the Municipality shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the list or a copy thereof may be inspected ; and every person claiming to be either owner or occupier of property included in the list, and any agent of such person, shall be at liberty to inspect that list and to make extracts therefrom without charge.

[4]This proviso was added by s. 16 (1) of the Bombay District Municipal Amendment Act, 1914 (Bom. 8 of 1914).

Public notice of time fixed for revising assessment-list.

65. (1) The Municipality shall at the time of the publication of such assessment-list give public notice of a time, not less than one month thereafter, when they will proceed to revise the valuation and assessment : and in all cases in which any property is for the first time assessed or the assessment is increased, they shall also give notice thereof to the owner or occupier of the property, if known.

Objections how to be made.

(2) All objections to the valuation and assessment shall be made to the Municipality, before the time fixed in the notice, by application in writing, stating the grounds on which the valuation and assessment are disputed, and all applications so made shall be registered in a book to be kept by the Municipality for the purpose.

Hearing of objections.

(3) [1][In a municipal district for which there is a Municipal Commissioner, such Municipal Commissioner, and elsewhere] the managing committee, or any committee or committees to which the Municipality delegate the powers and functions of the managing committee in this behalf, or any [2][Government officer] to whom, with the permission of the Commissioner, the Municipality delegate and they are hereby empowered so to delegate, the powers and functions of the managing committee in this behalf, shall, after allowing the applicant an opportunity of being heard in person or by agent,

(a) investigate and dispose of the objections,

(b) cause the result thereof to be noted in the book kept under sub-section (2), and

(c) cause any amendment necessary in accordance with such result to be made in the assessment-list :

[3][Provided that before any such amendment is made the reasons therefor shall be recorded in the book kept under sub-section (2).]

Authentication of list.

(4) When all objections made under this section have been disposed of, and all amendments required by sub-section (3) have been made in the assessment-list, the said list shall be authenticated [4][in a municipal district for which there is a Municipal Commissioner by the signature of the Municipal Commissioner, and elsewhere] by the signatures of the chairman and at least one other member of the managing committee, or if the Municipality have delegated the powers and functions of the managing committee in this behalf to any other committee or to [5][a] [2][Government officer] by the signatures of not less than two members of such committee or of the officer aforesaid, and the person or persons so authenticating the list shall certify that no valid objection has been made to the valuation and assessment contained in the list except in the cases in which amendments have been made therein.

Custody and inspection of list.

(5) The list so authenticated shall be deposited in the municipal office, and shall there be open for inspection during office hours to all owners and occupiers of property [6][entered] the rein, or to the agent of such persons, and a notice that it is so open shall be forthwith published.

Authenticated list how far conclusive.

(6) Subject—

(a) to such alterations as may thereafter be made therein, under the provisions of the next following section, and

(b) to the result of any appeal made under section 86,

the entries in the list so authenticated and deposited [1][and the entries, if any, inserted in the said list under the provisions of section 66] shall be accepted as conclusive evidence,

(i) for the purposes of all municipal taxes, of the annual letting value or other valuation of all buildings and lands to which such entries respectively refer, and

(ii) for the purposes of any tax imposed on buildings or lands, of the amount of each such tax leviable thereon throughout the official year to which such list relates.

Amendment of assessment list.

66. (1) The Municipality may at any time alter the said list [2][by inserting or altering an entry in respect of any property, such entry having been omitted from or erroneously made in the assessment list through fraud, accident or mistake or in respect of any building constructed, altered, added to or reconstructed in whole or in part, where such construction, alteration, addition or reconstruction has been completed after the preparation of the assessment list,] after giving notice to any person interested in the alteration, of a time, not less than one month from the date of service of such notice, at which the alteration is to be made.

Objections how dealt with.

(2) Every objection made by any person interested in any such alteration, before the time fixed in the notice, and in the manner provided by sub-section (2) of the last preceding section, shall be dealt with in all respects as if it were an application under the said section.

Effect of amendment.

[3][(3) An entry or alteration made under this section shall, subject to the provisions of section 86, have the same effect as if it had been made in the case of a building constructed, altered, added to or reconstructed on the day on which such construction, alteration, addition or reconstruction was completed or on the day on which the new construction, alteration, addition or reconstruction was first occupied, whichever first occurs, and in other cases, on the earliest day in the current official year on which the circumstances justifying the entry or alteration existed; and the tax or the enhanced tax, as the case may be, shall be levied in such year in the proportion which the remainder of the year after such day bears to the whole year.]

New assessment-list need not be prepared every year.

67. (1) It shall not be necessary to prepare a new assessment-list every year. Subject to the condition that every part of the assessment-list shall be completely revised not less than once in every four years, the Municipality may adopt the valuation and assessment contained in the list for any year, with such alterations as may be deemed necessary, for the year immediately following.

(2) But the provisions of sections 64, 65 and 66 shall be applicable every year as if a new assessment-list had been completed at the commencement of the official year:

[1][67A. (1) Where in any year a new assessment list is prepared, or a list is revised, or the valuation and assessment contained in the list for the year immediately preceding is adopted with or without alteration, such new, revised or adopted assessment list shall be authenticated in the manner provided by section 65 at any time not later than the thirty-first day of July of the official year to which the list relates; and if it is not so authenticated, then the State Government shall appoint such person or persons as it thinks fit to prepare, revise or adopt and authenticate the assessment list, and thereupon such person or persons shall duly authenticate such list at any time not later than the last day of the official year to which such list relates and the provisions of sections 63 to 65 or section 67 shall, as far as may be, apply to the preparation, revision or adoption of the list, as the case may be, by the person or persons appointed by the State Government. Power of State Government to appoint person to prepare and authenticate list in case of default by municipality.

(2) Where the State Government appoints any person or persons for the purpose of preparing, revising or adopting and authenticating an assessment list under sub-section (1), the expenses incurred by such person or persons for such purpose and the reasonable remuneration payable to such person or persons shall be recovered by the State Government in the manner provided by section 178.]

68. Every tax imposed in the form of a rate on buildings or lands or on both, shall be leviable primarily from the actual occupier of the property upon which the said taxes are assessed, if he is the owner of the buildings or land or holds them or a building or other lease from the [2][Government] or from the Municipality, or on a building lease from any person. Otherwise the said tax shall be primarily leviable as follows, namely:— Tax from whom primarily leviable.

(a) if the property is let, from the lessor;

(b) if the property is sublet, from the superior lessor;

(c) if the property is unlet, from the person in whom the right to let the same vests:

Provided that on failure to recover any sum due on account of such tax from the person primarily liable, such portion of the sum may be recovered from the occupier of any part of the buildings or lands in respect of which it is due as bears to the whole amount due the same ratio which the rent annually payable by such occupier bears to the aggregate amount of rent so payable in respect for the whole of the said buildings or lands, or to the aggregate amount of the letting value thereof, if any, stated in the authenticated assessment-list, whichever of those two amounts is the greater: Recovery from occupiers.

Bom. XXXIV of 1935.

2 any other tax (not being a toll on motor vehicles and trailers, save as provided by section 14 of the Bombay Motor Vehicles Tax Act, 1935) :

Provided that—

(a) no tax imposed as aforesaid, other than a special sanitary cess or a water-rate, shall, without the express consent of [3][the [4][State] Government], be leviable in respect of any building or part of any building, or of any vehicle, animal or other property, belonging to [5][Government] and used solely for public purposes, and not used or intended to be used for purposes of profit, and no toll shall be leviable for the passage of troops or the conveyance of [6][[7][Government] stores] or of any other [8][[7][Government] property], or for the passage of Military or Police-officers on duty, or the passage or conveyance of any person or property in their custody ;

(b) no special sanitary cess shall be leviable in respect of any private latrines, premises or compounds unless and until the Municipality have—

(i) made provision for the cleansing thereof by manual labour, or for conducting or receiving the sewage thereof into municipal sewers, and

(ii) issued either severally to the persons to be charged, or generally to the inhabitants of the district or part of the district to be charged, with such cess one month's notice of the intention of the Municipality to perform such cleansing and to levy such cess ;

(c) the Municipality in lieu of imposing separately any two or more of the taxes described in clauses (i), (vii), (viii) and (ix) [9]* * *may impose a consolidated tax assessed as a rate on buildings or lands, or both situate within the municipal district.

[10][(2) Nothing in this section shall authorise the imposition of any tax which the [4][State] Legislature has no power to impose in the [11][State] under the [12][Constitution] :

Provided that a Municipality which immediately before the commencement of [13][the Constitution] was lawfully levying any such tax under this section as then in force, may continue to levy that tax until provision to the contrary is made by [14][Parliament].

Procedure of Municipality preliminary to imposing tax.

60. Every Municipality before imposing a tax shall observe the following preliminary procedure :—

(a) They shall, by resolution passed at a general meeting,

(i) select for the purpose one or other of the taxes specified in section 59 ;

(ii) prepare rules for the purposes of clause (i) of section 46 prescribing the tax selected ;

and shall by such resolution and in such rules specify,—

(iii) the class or classes of persons or of property, or of both, which the Municipality desire to make liable, and any exemptions which they desire to make ;

(4) Special provisions relating to certain taxes.

Fixed charges and agreements for payment in lieu of taxes for water supplied.

71. (1) The Municipality may, instead of imposing a water-rate or, in individual cases, of levying a rate imposed in respect of the supply of water belonging to the Municipality to, or for use in connection with, any private lands or buildings,

(a) fix at rates not exceeding such as shall be specified in the rules in force under section 46, charges for such supply according to the quantity used, as ascertained by measurement,

(b) arrange with any person, on his application, to supply on payment, periodical or otherwise, water belonging to the Municipality in such quantities or for such purposes, whether domestic, ornamental, or irrigational or for trade, manufacture or otherwise, on such terms and subject to such conditions as they shall fix by agreement with such person :

Provided that—

(a) the meters, connection-pipes and all other works necessary for and incidental to such supplies, and all future repairs, extensions and alterations of such works shall be under the control of the Municipality, and the expense thereof shall, so far as is not inconsistent with the rules or by-laws of the Municipality, be defrayed by the persons liable in respect of such supplies, and

(b) all such supplies of water shall be, and shall be deemed to have been granted, subject to all such conditions as to the limit or stoppage thereof, and as to the prevention of waste or misuse, as are prescribed in the by-laws for the time being in force under section 48.

Power to fix a special rate in lieu of special sanitary cess.

(2) When the Municipality have made provision for the cleansing of any factory, hotel, club or group of buildings or lands used for any one purpose and under one management, they may, instead of levying in respect thereof any special sanitary cess imposed under this Chapter, fix a special rate and the dates and other conditions for periodical payments thereof, which shall be determined either,

(i) in accordance with the rules for the time being in force under section 46, or

(ii) by written agreement with the person who would have been otherwise liable for the cess, provided that, in fixing the amount, proper regard be had to the probable cost to the Municipality of the service to be rendered.

Power to compound tax on vehicles or animals.

(3) When the Municipality have imposed a tax on vehicles or animals kept for use within the municipal district they may compound with the keeper of any livery-stable or of horses or vehicles kept for sale and hire, for the payment of a lump sum, for any period not exceeding one year at a time, in lieu of any amount which such keeper would otherwise have been liable to pay on account of the tax imposed as aforesaid.

Recovery of sums claimed under this section.

(4) Every sum claimed by the Municipality as due under sub-section (1) as a charge fixed by agreement or otherwise on account of water-supply, or as expenses to be defrayed such as are referred to in that sub-section, or as a special rate under sub-section (2) or as a lump sum payable under sub-section (3), shall for the purposes of Chapter VIII be deemed to be, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under the said Chapter :

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the right or power of the Municipality to contract with any person to supply for use beyond the limits of the municipal district, at such rates and on such conditions as the Municipality may think fit, any quantity of water belonging to the Municipality but not required for the purposes of this Act.

Taxes on pilgrims may be assigned in part to local boards.

72. If any tax imposed under this Act is a tax on pilgrims resorting periodically to a shrine within the limits of a municipal district, the Commissioner may require the Municipality of such district to assign and pay to the district local board, or to the taluka local board having authority in the taluka in which such municipal district is situate, or partly to the said district local board and partly to the said taluka local board, such portion of the total collections on account of such tax as he shall deem fit; and the portion so assigned shall be expended by the said board or boards, within the areas respectively under their authority, on works conducive to the health, convenience and safety of the said pilgrims.

Power of Provincial Government to suspend levy of objectionable taxes.

73. If it shall at any time appear to the [1][Provincial Government], on complaint made or otherwise, that any tax, leviable by a Municipality, is unfair in its incidence, or that the levy thereof, or of any part thereof, is obnoxious to the interest of the general public, [2][it] may require the said Municipality, within such period as [2][it] shall fix in this behalf, to take measures for removing any objection which appears to [3][it] to exist to the said tax, and if, within the period so fixed, such requirement shall not be carried into effect to the satisfaction of the [1][Provincial Government], [2][it] may, by notification in the [4][Official Gazette], suspend the levy of such tax, or of such part thereof, until such time as the objection thereto shall be removed.

The [1][Provincial Government] may at any time, by a like notification, rescind any such suspension.

Power of Provincial Government to require municipalities to impose taxes.

74. Whenever it appears to the [1][Provincial Government] that the balance of the municipal fund of any Municipality is insufficient for meeting the expenditure incurred under section 175 or for the performance of any duties in respect of which they shall have been declared under section 178 to have committed default, the [1][Provincial Government] may by notification require the Municipality to impose, within the municipal district, any such tax specified in the notification as may be imposed under section 59 if no such tax is at the time imposed therein, or to enhance any existing tax in such manner or to such extent as the [1][Provincial Government] considers fit, and the Municipality shall forthwith proceed to impose or enhance in accordance with the requisition such tax under the provisions of this Chapter, as if a resolution of the Municipality had been passed for the purpose under section 60:

Provided that—

(a) the [1][Provincial Government] shall take into consideration any objection which the Municipality or any inhabitant of the municipal district may make against the imposition or enhancement of such tax,

(b) it shall not be lawful for the Municipality to abandon or modify or to abolish such tax when imposed, and

[4] The words "Official Gazette" were substituted for the words "Bombay Government Gazette", ibid.

(c) the [1][Provincial Government] may at any time cancel or modify any requisition made by [2][it] under this [3][section], and the levy of the tax or the enhancement, except as to arrears theretofore accrued due, shall thereupon cease or be modified accordingly.

Octroi by-laws to be submitted with proposal for imposition of octroi.

75. Every Municipality, when submitting for sanction a proposal for the imposition of octroi, shall submit therewith for sanction a draft of by-laws for the purposes of clause (j) of section 48, after observing the requirements of sub-sections (2) and (3) of that section.

Power to examine articles liable to octroi.

[4]76. (1) Every person bringing into, or receiving from beyond, the octroi limits of a municipal district any article on which octroi is payable shall, when required by an officer authorized in this behalf by the Municipality, and so far as may be necessary for ascertaining the amount of tax chargeable,

(a) permit that officer to inspect, examine and weigh, and otherwise deal with the article; and

(b) communicate to that officer any information and exhibit to him any bill, invoice or document of a like nature, which he may possess relating to the article.

Power to search where octroi is leviable.

(2) If any person bringing into, or receiving from beyond, the octroi limits of a municipal district in which octroi is leviable any conveyance or package shall refuse, on the demand of an officer authorized by the municipality in this behalf, to permit the officer to inspect the contents of the conveyance or package for the purpose of ascertaining whether it contains any articles in respect of which octroi is payable, the officer may cause the conveyance or package to be taken without unnecessary delay before a Magistrate or such officer of the Municipality as the [1][Provincial Government] appoints in this behalf by name or office, who shall cause the inspection to be made in his presence.

Presentation of bills for octroi.

77. (1) Every officer demanding octroi by the authority of the Municipality shall tender to every person introducing or receiving any article on which the tax is claimed, a bill specifying the article taxable, the amount claimed, and the rate at which the tax is calculated.

Penalty for evasion of octroi.

(2) If goods passing into a municipal district are liable to the payment of octroi, then every person who, with the intention to defraud the Municipality, causes or abets the introduction of, or himself introduces or attempts to introduce within the octroi limits of the said district, any such goods upon which payment of the octroi due on such introduction has neither been made nor tendered, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ten times the value of such octroi or to fifty rupees, whichever may be greater.

Tables of tolls to be shown on demand.

78. Every Municipality imposing any toll under this Act shall cause to be kept, at each place where such toll is to be collected, a table in the vernacular language of the district, showing the amounts leviable in all cases provided for in the rules, including the terms, if any, on which the liability to pay such tolls may be compounded by periodical payments, and it shall be the duty of every person authorized to demand payment of a toll to show such table on the request of any person on whom such demand is made.

Power to seize vehicle or animal on non-payment of octroi or toll.

79. (1) In the case of non-payment on demand of any octroi or of any toll leviable by a Municipality, the person appointed to collect such octroi or toll may seize any article on which the octroi is chargeable or any vehicle or animal on which the toll is chargeable, or any part of its burden, which is of sufficient value to satisfy the demand, and may detain the same. He shall thereupon give the person in possession of the vehicle, animal or article seized, a list of the property together with a written notice in the form of Schedule D that the said property will be sold as shall be specified in such notice.

Power to sell property seized at once.

(2) When any article seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it together with the amount of the octroi or toll chargeable is likely to exceed its value, the person seizing such article may inform the person in whose possession it was that it will be sold at once, and shall sell it or cause it to be sold accordingly unless the amount of octroi or toll demanded be forthwith paid.

Release of property on payment.

(3) If at any time before the sale has begun, the person whose property has been so seized tenders at the municipal office the amount of all expenses incurred, and of the octroi or toll payable, the Municipality shall forthwith release the property seized.

Sale.

(4) If no such tender is made, the property may be sold, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied in payment of such octroi or toll and the expenses incidental to the seizure, detention and sale.

Surplus how dealt with.

(5) If surplus, if any, of the sale-proceeds shall be credited to the municipal fund, and may, on application made to the Municipality in writing within six months next after the sale, be paid to the person in whose possession the property was when seized, and, if no such application is made, shall be the property of the Municipality.

Power to keep account current with firm or public body in lieu of levying octroi on introduction of goods.

80. The Municipality, if they think fit, instead of requiring payment of octroi, due from any mercantile firm or public body, to be made at the time when the articles in respect of which it is leviable are introduced within the octroi limits of the municipal district, may at any time direct that an account-current shall be kept on behalf of the Municipality of the octroi so due from any such firm or body as the Municipality specify in this behalf. Every such account shall be settled at intervals not exceeding one month, and such firm or public body shall make such deposit or furnish such security as the Municipality or any committee or officer authorized by them in this behalf shall consider sufficient to cover the amount which may at any time be due from such firm or body in respect of such dues. Every amount so due at the expiry of any such interval shall, for the purposes of Chapter VIII, be deemed to be, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under the said Chapter.

Collection of octroi by one public body on behalf of others.

81. When any agreement such as is referred to in clause (b) of section 39 has been entered into, such one of the bodies entering into the agreement as by the terms thereof shall be specified in this behalf, shall have the same power to establish such octroi limits and octroi stations as that body may deem necessary, for the entire area in which the octroi is to be collected, and shall have the same power of collecting octroi on animals or goods or both brought within the limits so established, and the provisions of [1][the Act under which that body is constituted] relating to octroi shall apply in the same way as if the limits so established were wholly comprised within the area subject to the control of [2][that body], and the collections made and the costs thereby incurred shall, subject to the provisions of section 39, be divided between the funds respectively subject to the control of the bodies so entering into the agreement, in such proportions as shall have been determined in the said agreement

Farming of tolls.

[3][81A. (1) It shall be lawful for the Municipality to lease the levy of any toll that may be imposed under this Act by public auction or private contract :

Provided that the leasee shall give security for the due fulfilment of the conditions of the lease.

Person employed by lessee of toll to have power of seizure.

(2) Where any toll has been leased under this section any person employed by the lessee to collect such toll shall, subject to the conditions of the lease, have the powers referred to in sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 79 :

Provided that no article distrained may be sold except under the orders of the Municipality.]

CHAPTER VIII.

Recovery of Municipal Claims.

Presentation of bill for taxes.

82. (1) When any amount,

(a) which, by or under any provisions of this Act, is declared to be recoverable in the manner provided by this Chapter, or

(b) which, not being leviable under sub-section (1) of section 79, or payable on demand on account of an octroi or a toll, is claimable as an amount or instalment on account of any other tax which now is imposed or hereafter may be imposed in any municipal district, hall have become due, the Municipality shall, with the least practicable delay, cause so be presented to the person liable for the payment thereof a bill for the sums tclaimed as due.

Contents of bill.

(2) Every such bill shall specify—

(a) the period for which, and

(b) the property, occupation or thing in respect of which, the sum is claimed, and shall also give notice of—

(i) the liability incurred in default of payment, and of

Power of entry under special order.

(3) It shall be lawful for [1][any officer] to whom a warrant issued under sub-section (2) is addressed, if the warrant contains a special order authorizing him in this behalf, but not otherwise, to break open, at any time between sunrise and sunset, any outer or inner door or window of a building, in order to make the distress directed in the warrant, if he has reasonable grounds for believing that such building contains property which is liable to seizure under the warrant, and if after notifying his authority and purpose and duly demanding admittance, he cannot otherwise obtain admittance : Provided that such officer shall not enter or break open the door of any apartment appropriated for women, until he has given three hours' notice of his intention and has given such women an opportunity to remove.

Warrant how to be executed.

(4) It shall also be lawful for such officer to distrain, wherever it may be found, any moveable property [2][or attach any immovable property] of the person therein named as defaulter, subject to the following conditions, exceptions and exemptions, namely :—

(a) The following property shall not be distrained :—

(i) the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of the defaulter, his wife and children,

(ii) the tools of artizans,

(iii) when the defaulter is an agriculturist, his implements of husbandry, seed-grain, and such cattle as may be necessary to enable the defaulter to earn his livelihood.

(b) The distress shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible proportionate in value to the amount recoverable under the warrant, and if any articles have been distrained which, in the opinion of a person authorized by or under sub-section (2) to sign a warrant, should not have been so distrained they shall forthwith be returned.

(c) The officer shall on [3][distraining or attaching] the property forthwith make an inventory thereof, and [4]* * give to the person in possession thereof at the time of [5][distraint or attachment] a written notice in the form of Schedule D that the said property will be sold as shall be specified in such notice.

[6][(d) (i) When the property is immovable, the attachment shall be made by an order prohibiting the defaulter from transferring or charging the property in any way, and all persons from taking any benefit from such transfer or charge ;

(ii) the order shall be proclaimed at some place on or adjacent to the property by beat of drum or other customary mode, and a copy of the order shall be fixed on a conspicuous part of the property and then upon a conspicuous part of the municipal office, and also, when the property is land paying revenue to the [7][State] Government, in the office of the Collector of the district in which the land is situate].

CHAPTER IX.

MUNICIPAL POWERS AND OFFENCES.

(1) Powers in respect of streets.

Power regarding streets, etc.

90. (1) It shall be lawful for the Municipality to lay out and make new public streets, and to construct tunnels and other works subsidiary to the same, and to widen, open, enlarge or otherwise improve any such streets, and to turn, divert, discontinue or stop up any such streets, and, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 40 [1][to lease or sell] any such land, theretofore used or acquired by the Municipality for the purposes of such streets as may not be required for any public street or for any other purposes of this Act.

(2) In laying out or making or in turning, diverting, widening, opening enlarging, or otherwise improving any public street, in addition to the land required for the carriage-way and footways and drains thereof, the Municipality may purchase the land necessary for the houses and buildings to form the said street, and, subject to the provision contained in sub-section (2) of section 40, may sell and dispose of the same in perpetuity or on lease for a term of years, with such stipulations as to the class and description of houses or buildings to be erected thereon as they may think fit.

Power to require repair of streets.

(3) When the Municipality consider that in any street, not being a public street, or in any part of such street, within the municipal district, it is necessary for the public health, convenience or safety that any work should be done for the levelling, paving, metalling, flagging, channeling, draining, lighting or cleaning thereof, the Municipality may by written notice require the respective owners of the lands or buildings fronting, adjoining or abutting upon such street or part thereof, to carry out such work in a manner and within a time to be specified in such notice.

and to declare such streets public.

(4) After such work has been carried out by such owners or, as provided in section 156, by the Municipality at the expense of such owners, the street or part thereof in which such work has been done may, and on the joint requisition of a majority of the said owners shall, be declared by a public notice, put up therein by the Municipality, to be a public street.

Power to declare any street a public street, subject to objections by the owners.

(5) A Municipality may, at any time, by notice fixed up in any street or part of a street not maintainable by the Municipality, give intimation of their intention to declare the same a public street, and unless within one month next after such notice has been so put up, the owner or the majority of several owners of such street or such part of a street lodges or lodge objections thereto at the municipal office, the Municipality may by notice in writing put up in such street, or such part, declare the same to be a public street.

New streets.

91. (1) Every person intending to lay out or make any new street, shall give notice in writing thereof to the Municipality, and shall furnish plans and sections showing the intended level, means of drainage, direction and width of such street, if required by the Municipality to do so, and the level, means of drainage, direction and width of every such street shall be fixed or approved by the Municipality.

Power of Municipality to pass orders.

(2) Before passing orders under sub-section (1), the Municipality may either issue,

(a) a provisional order directing that for a period therein specified, which shall not be longer than one month from the date of such order, the intended work shall not be proceeded with, or

Right to proceed in certain cases.

(3) If,

(a) within one month from the receipt of the notice given under sub-section (1) the Municipality have neither—

(i) passed orders and served notice thereof either fixing or disapproving the proposals submitted under sub-section (1) with regard to level, means of drainage, direction and width of the street, nor.

(ii) under sub-section (2), issued any provisional order or demand for further particulars, or if

(b) the Municipality, having issued such demand for, and having received, in accordance with the demand and with by-laws in force in this behalf, such further particulars, have issued no further orders within one month from the receipt of such particulars, then the street may be laid out and made, in such manner as may have been specified in the notice, and as is not inconsistent with any provision of this Act or of any by-laws for the time being in force thereunder.

Penalty.

(4) Whoever lays out, makes or builds upon any such street, either without giving the notice required by sub-section (1), or, except in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) without awaiting, or otherwise than in accordance with, the instructions issued by the Municipality, or in any manner contrary to the provisions of this Act or of any by-law in force thereunder shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees, and the Municipality may cause any street so laid out or made to be altered, and any building erected in such street contrary to their directions to be altered or removed, and the expense thereby incurred shall be paid to them by the offender, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII

[1][91A. (1) It shall be the duty of every [2][city municipality and of such other municipality as may be notified by [3][the Provincial Government] in this behalf] to prescribe a line on each side of every public street within the municipal district and the Municipality may from time to time prescribe a fresh line in substitution for any line so prescribed, or for any part thereof: The regular line of a public street.

Provided that—

(a) at least one month previous to prescribing such line or such fresh line, as the case may be, the Municipality shall give public notice of the proposal and they shall put up special notice thereof in the street or part of the street for which such line or such fresh line is proposed to be prescribed, and

(b) the Municipality shall consider any written objection or suggestion in regard to such proposal delivered at the office of the Municipality within such time as they may specify in such public or special notice.

(2) The line for the time being so prescribed shall be called ' the regular line of the public street '.

[4][(3) (a) Except] under the provisions of section 113, no person shall construct or reconstruct any portion of any building within the regular line of the public street without the permission of the Municipality under section 96.

(b) Where the Municipality refuses permission to construct or reconstruct any building in any area within the regular line of the public street, such area shall be added to the street and shall thenceforth be deemed part of the public street and shall be vested in the Municipality.

(c) Compensation, the amount of which shall in case of dispute be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in section 160, shall be paid by the Municipality to the owner of any land added to a street under clause (b) for the value of the said land, and to the owner of any building for any loss, damage or expense incurred by such owner in consequence of any action taken by the Municipality under the said clause :

Provided that no such compensation shall be payable in cases to which section 119 applies.]

(4) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (3) shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees; and the Municipality may—

(a) direct that the building be stopped, and

(b) by written notice require such building or portion thereof to be altered or demolished as they may deem necessary.]

Setting back projecting buildings.

92. (1) If any part of a building projects beyond the regular line of a public street either as existing or as determined upon for the future or beyond the front of the building on either side thereof, the Municipality may,—

(a) if the projecting part thereof is a verandah, step or some other structure external to the main building, then at any time, or

(b) if the projecting part is not such external structure as aforesaid, then whenever the greater portion of such building or whenever any material portion of such projecting part has been taken down or burned down or has fallen down, require by written notice either that the part, or some portion of the part, projecting beyond the said regular line or beyond the said front of the adjoining building on either side thereof, shall be removed or that such building when being rebuilt shall be set back to or towards the said regular line or the front of such building. And the portion of land added to the street by such setting back or removal shall thenceforth be deemed part of the public street and be vested in the Municipality.

Acquisition of land which is within the regular line of a street and open or occupied only by platforms, etc.

(2) If any land, not vested in the Municipality, whether open or enclosed, lies within the regular line of a public street, and is not occupied by a building other than a platform, verandah, step or other such external structure, the Municipality after giving the owner of the land not less than fifteen clear days' written notice of their intention, or if the land is vested in His Majesty, then with the permission in writing of the Collector, may take possession of the said land with its enclosing wall, hedge or fence, if any, and, if necessary, clear the same; and the land so acquired shall thenceforward be deemed a part of the public street, and be vested in the Municipality.

Compensation payable by the Municipality.

(3) Compensation, the amount of which shall in case of dispute be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in section 160, shall be paid by the Municipality to the owner of any land added to a street under sub-section (1) or acquired under sub-section (2) for the value of the said land and to the owner of any building for any loss, damage or expense incurred by such owner in consequence of any action taken by the Municipality under either of the said sub-sections, provided that no such compensation shall be payable in cases to which section 119 applies.

Setting forward to regular line of street.

93. The Municipality may, upon such terms as they think fit, allow any building to be set forward for improving the line of any public street in which such building is situated.

Roofs and external walls of buildings not to be made of inflammable materials.

94. (1) The external roofs and walls of buildings erected or renewed after the coming into force of this Act, shall not be made of grass, wood, cloth, canvas, leaves mats or other inflammable materials except with the written consent of the Municipality, which may be given either specially in individual cases, or generally in respect of any area specified therein.

Power to require removal of roof and wall if inflammable.

(2) The Municipality may at any time by written notice require the owner of any building which has an external roof or wall made of any such material as aforesaid, to remove such roof or wall within such reasonable time as shall be specified in the notice, whether such roof or wall was or was not made before the time at which this Act came into force, and whether it was made with or without the consent of the Municipality.

(3) Whoever without such consent as is required by sub-section (1) makes, or causes to be made, or in disobedience to the requirements of a notice given under sub-section (2) suffers to remain, any roof or wall of such material as aforesaid, shall be punished with a fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees, and with a further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day on which the offence is continued, after the date of the first conviction. Penalty.

95. No building shall hereafter be built upon a lower level than will allow of the drainage thereof being led into some public sewer or drain either then existing or projected by the Municipality, or into some stream or river, or into the sea, or some cesspool, or other suitable place which may be approved of by the Municipality. Level of buildings.

96. (1) Before beginning to erect any building, or to alter externally or add to any existing building, or to [1][construct or] reconstruct any projecting portion of a building in respect of which the Municipality is empowered by section 92 to enforce a removal or set-back, [2][or is empowered by section 91A to give permission to [1][construct or] reconstruct it,] the person intending so to build, alter, [3][add or reconstruct] shall give to the Municipality notice thereof in writing, and shall furnish to them, at the same time if required by a by-law or by special order to do so, Notice of new buildings.

(a) the sanad, if any, in force relating to the site of such proposed building, issued under section 10 of [4]Bombay Act IV of 1868 or received under section 133 of the [5]Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879, or other enactment relating to the survey of lands in towns and cities, and

(f) the addition of any rooms, buildings or other structures to any building, and a building so altered, enlarged, reconstructed, converted, or added to, is, throughout this Chapter, included under the expression " a new building ".

Power of Municipality to refuse permission.

[1][96A. (1) When a person has given notice to the municipality under sub-section (1) of section 96 in regard to his intention to build, alter, add to or reconstruct a building, it shall be lawful to the municipality to refuse the permission applied for if the municipality passes a resolution proposing to acquire the land on which any building is proposed to be erected or any building situated on which is proposed to be altered, added to or reconstructed.

(2) Such refusal shall be subject to the following conditions :—

(a) if the property is acquired and no agreement is arrived at as regards the amount of compensation payable to the person giving notice under sub-section (1) of section 96 the same shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 160 regard being had to the likely benefit which would have accrued to such person if the permission had not been refused ;

(b) if within a period of six months from the date of the resolution of the municipality proposing to acquire the land, the land is not acquired by the municipality by agreement upon payment, or if within such period, an application has not been made to the Collector for the institution of proceedings for compulsory acquisition under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, or if the municipality abandons the proposal to acquire the land, the notice given under sub-section (1) of section 96 shall be deemed to have been revived with effect from the date on which the said period of six months expires, or with effect from the date on which the decision of the municipality to abandon the proposal is arrived at, as the case may be. Such decision shall be communicated to the person giving notice within fifteen days from the date of the decision and the notice shall be dealt with as if the municipality has not passed a resolution to acquire the land. The municipality shall be liable to pay compensation to the said person in respect of the loss which he may prove to have incurred by reason of the municipality's refusal to grant the permission : I of 1894.

Provided that the municipality shall not be liable to pay compensation if the notice under sub-section (1) of section 96 is given subsequent to the passing of the resolution by the municipality to acquire the land.]

Regulation of huts.

97. It shall not be lawful for any person to erect any hut or shed or range or block of huts or sheds, or to add any hut or shed to any range or block of huts or sheds already existing when this Act comes into operation, without giving previous notice to the Municipality ; and the Municipality may require such huts or sheds to be built so that they may stand in regular lines, with a free passage or way in front of and between every two lines of such width as the Municipality think proper for ventilation and to facilitate scavenging, and at such a level as will admit of sufficient drainage, and may require such huts to be provided with such number of privies and such means of drainage as to them may seem necessary. If any hut or shed or range or block be built without giving such notice to the Municipality, or otherwise than as required by the Municipality, the Municipality may give written notice to the owner or builder thereof, or to the owner or occupier of the land on which the same is erected, or is being erected, requiring him within such reasonable time as shall be specified in the notice to take down and remove the same, or to make such alterations therein or additions thereto as having regard to sanitary considerations the Municipality may think fit.

Improvement of huts.

98. (1) Whenever the Municipality are of opinion that any huts or sheds, whether used as dwellings or stables or for any other purposes, and whether existing at the time when this Act comes into operation or subsequently erected, are by reason—

(a) of insufficient ventilation or of the manner in which such huts or sheds are crowded together, or

(b) of the want of a plinth or of a sufficient plinth or of sufficient drainage, or

(c) of the impracticability of scavenging,

attended with risk of disease to the inhabitants or the neighbourhood, they shall cause a notice to be affixed to some conspicuous part of each such hut or shed, requiring the owner or occupier thereof, or the owner of the land on which such hut or shed is built, within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the Municipality for that purpose, to take down and remove such hut or shed, or to execute such operations as the Municipality may deem necessary for the avoidance of such risk.

(2) In case any such owner or occupier shall refuse or neglect to take down and remove such huts or sheds, or to execute such operations within the time appointed, the Municipality may cause the said huts or sheds to be taken down, or such operations to be performed in respect of such huts or sheds as they may deem necessary to prevent such risk.

(3) If such huts or sheds be pulled down by the Municipality, the Municipality shall cause the materials of each hut or shed to be sold separately, if such sale can be effected, and the proceeds, after deducting all expenses, shall be paid to the owner of the hut or shed, or if the owner be unknown or the title disputed, shall be held in deposit by the Municipality until the person interested therein shall obtain the order of a competent Court for the payment of the same :

Provided always that in case any huts or sheds, existing at the time when the land on which they are situated first became part of a municipal district, should be pulled down under this section by order of the Municipality, or in pursuance of their notice, compensation shall further be made to the owner or owners thereof, and the amount thereof, in case of dispute, shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in section 160.

Municipal control over drains, etc.

99. (1) All sewers, drains, privies, water-closets, house-gullies and cesspools within the municipal district shall be under the survey and control of the Municipality.

(2) All covered sewers and drains, and all cesspools, whether public or private, shall be provided by the Municipality or other persons to whom they severally belong, with proper traps, or other coverings or means of ventilation and the Municipality may by written notice call upon the owner of any such covered sewers, drains or cesspools to make provision accordingly.

Powers for making drains.

100. (1) In order to carry out any drainage scheme it shall be lawful for a Municipality to carry any drain, sewer, conduit, tunnel, culvert pipe or water-course through, across or under any street, or any place laid out as or intended for a street, or under any cellar or vault which may be under any street, and after giving reasonable notice in writing to the owner or occupier, into, through or under any land whatsoever within the municipal district.

(2) The Municipality, or any officer appointed by them for such purpose, may enter upon and construct any new drain in the place of an existing drain in any land wherein any drain vested in the Municipality has been already constructed, or may repair or alter any drain vested in the Municipality.

(3) In the exercise of any power under this section no unnecessary damage shall be done, and compensation, which shall, in case of dispute, be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in section 160, shall be paid by the Municipality to any person who sustains damage by the exercise of such power.

Sufficient drainage of houses.

101. (1) If any building or land be at any time undrained, or not drained to the satisfaction of the Municipality, the Municipality may by written notice call upon the owner to construct or lay from such building or land a drain or pipe of such size and materials, at such level, and with such fall as they think necessary for the drainage of such building or land into—

(a) some drain or sewer, if there be a suitable drain or sewer within fifty feet of any part of such building or land, or

New buildings not to be erected without drains.

(2) It shall not be lawful newly to erect any building or to re-build any building, or to occupy any building newly erected or re-built, unless and until—

(a) a drain be constructed of such size, materials and description, at such level, and with such fall, as shall appear to the Municipality to be necessary for the effectual drainage of such building ;

(b) there have been provided for and set up in such building and in the land appurtenant thereto, all such appliances and fittings as may appear to the Municipality to be necessary for the purposes of gathering and receiving the drainage, from, and conveying the same off, the said building and the said land and of effectually flushing the drain of the said building and every fixture connected therewith.

(3) The drain to be constructed as aforesaid shall empty into a municipal drain, or into some place legally set apart for the discharge of drainage situated at a distance not exceeding fifty feet from such building ; but if there is no such drain or place within that distance, then such drain shall empty into such cesspool as the Municipality direct.

Powers of owners and occupiers of buildings or lands to drain into municipal drains.

102. The owner or occupier of any building or land within the municipal district shall be entitled to cause his drains to empty into the sewers of the Municipality, provided that he first obtains the written permission of the Municipality, and that he complies with such conditions as the Municipality prescribe as to the mode in which and the superintendence under which the communications are to be made between drains not vested in the Municipality and drains which are so vested.

How right to carry drain through land or into drain belonging to other persons may be obtained.

103. (1) If the owner or occupier of any building or land desires to connect the same with any municipal drain, by means of a drain, to be constructed through land, or to be connected with a drain, belonging to or occupied by or in the use of some other person, he may make a written application in that behalf to the Municipality.

Such right how and on what conditions to be authorized by Municipality.

(2) The Municipality thereupon, after giving to such other person a reasonable opportunity of stating any objection to such application, may, if no objection is raised or if any objection which is raised is in their opinion insufficient, by an order in writing authorize the applicant to carry his drain into, through, or under the said land, or into the said drain, as the case may be, in such manner and on such conditions as to the payment of rent or compensation, and as to the respective responsibilities of the parties for maintaining, repairing, flushing, cleaning and emptying the said drains as may appear to them to be adequate and equitable.

Written order of municipal authority for execution of necessary work.

(3) Every such order shall be a complete authority to the person in whose favour it is made, or to any agent or other person employed by him for this purpose, after giving or tendering to the owner or occupier of the said land or drain the compensation or rent, if any, specified in the said order, and otherwise fulfilling as far as possible the conditions of the said order, and after giving to the said owner or occupier reasonable notice in writing, to enter upon the land specified in the said order with assistants and workmen at any time between sunrise and sunset and, subject to all provisions of this Act, to do all such work as may be necessary—

(a) for the construction or connection of the drain, as may be authorized by the said order,

(b) for renewing, repairing or altering the same, as may be necessary from time to time, or

(c) for discharging any responsibility attaching to him under the terms of the order as to maintaining, repairing, flushing, cleaning or emptying the said drain or any part thereof.

Work how to be carried out.

104. In executing any work under section 103, as little damage as possible shall be done, and the owner or occupier of the buildings or lands for the benefit of which the work is done, shall—

(a) cause the work to be executed with the least practicable delay;

(b) fill in, reinstate and make good at his own cost and with the least practicable delay the ground or any portion of any building or other construction opened, broken up or removed for the purpose of executing the said work; and

(c) pay compensation to any person who sustains damage by the execution of the said work.

Rights of owner of land through which drain is carried in regard to subsequent building thereon.

105. If the owner of any land into, through or under which a drain has been carried under section 103 whilst such land was unbuilt upon, shall at any subsequent time desire to erect a building thereon, the Municipality shall, if they sanction the erection of such building, by written notice require the owner or occupier of the buildings or land for the benefit of which such drain was constructed to close, remove or divert the same, and to fill in, reinstate and make good the land in such manner as they may deem to be necessary, in order to admit of the construction or safe enjoyment of the proposed building.

Provision of privies, etc.

106. (1) In case the Municipality shall be of opinion that any privy or cesspool, or additional privies, or cesspools, should be provided in or on any building or land or, in any municipal district in which, with the approval of the sanitary board, a water-closet system has been introduced, [1][that water-closets or additional water-closets should be provided in or on any building or land, or that water-closets should be substituted for the existing privies in such number as may be considered necessary by it,] the Municipality may by written notice call upon the owner of such building or land to provide such privies, cesspools or water-closets [2][or to substitute water-closets for the existing privies] as the Municipality may deem proper.

(2) The Municipality may by written notice require any person or persons employing workmen or labourers exceeding twenty in number, or owning or managing any market, school or theatre or other place of public resort, to provide such latrines and urinals as the Municipality may direct, and to cause the same to be kept in proper order, and to be daily cleaned.

(3) The Municipality may by written notice require the owner or occupier of any land upon which there is a privy, to have such privy shut out, by a sufficient roof and a wall or fence, from the view of persons passing by or resident in the neighbourhood, or to alter as they may direct any privy door or trap door which opens on to any street, and which they deem to be a nuisance.

Cost of altering, repairing and keeping in proper order privies, etc.

107. (1) All sewers, drains, privies, water-closets, house-gullies and cesspools within municipal district shall, unless constructed at the cost of the Municipality, be altered, repaired, and kept in proper order at the cost and charges of the owners of the land and buildings to which the same belong, or for the use of which they are constructed or continued, and the Municipality may by written notice require such owner to alter, repair, and put the same in good order in such manner as they think fit.

(2) The Municipality may by written notice [3][require the owner to] demolish or close any privy or cesspool, whether constructed before or after the coming in operation of this Act, which in the opinion of the Municipality is a nuisance, or is so constructed as to be inaccessible for the purpose of scavenging or incapable of being properly cleaned or kept in good order.

Power to close existing private drains.

108. When any building or land within the municipal district has a drain communicating with any cesspool or sewer, the Municipality, if they consider that such drain, though it may be sufficient for the drainage of such building or land, and though it may be otherwise unobjectionable is not adapted to the general sewerage of the district, may close such drain, and such cesspool or sewer, whether it is or is not on land vested in the Municipality, on providing a drain or drains equally effectual for the drainage of such building or land, and the Municipality may do any work necessary for the purpose.

Power in respect of sewers, etc., unauthorizedly constructed, rebuilt or unstopped.

109. The Municipality may by written notice require that any such sewer, drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully or cesspool on any land within municipal limits constructed, rebuilt or unstopped—

(a) after such land became part of a municipal district, and

(b) either without the consent or contrary to the orders, directions or general regulations or by-laws of the Municipality, or contrary to the provisions of any enactment in force at the time when it was so constructed, rebuilt or unstopped, shall be demolished, amended or altered, as they may deem fit, by the person by whom it was so constructed, rebuilt or unstopped and every person so constructing, rebuilding or unstopping any such sewer, drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully or cesspool, whether he does or does not receive such notice or does or does not comply therewith shall, in addition to any penalty to which he may be liable on account of such non-compliance, be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees.

Encroachments on municipal drains.

110. (1) Whoever, without the written consent of the Municipality first obtained, makes or causes to be made any drain into or out from any of the sewers or drains vested in the Municipality, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees, and the Municipality may by written notice require such person to demolish, alter, remake, or otherwise deal with such drain as they may think fit.

(2) No building shall be newly erected or rebuilt over any sewer, drain, culvert or gutter vested in the Municipality, without the written consent of the Municiplaity, and the Municipality may by written notice require the person who may have erected or rebuilt such building to pull down or otherwise deal with the same as they may think fit.

Inspection of drains, etc.

111. (1) The Municipality or any officer appointed by them for such purposes may, subject to the rest ictions of this Act, inspect any sewer, drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully or cesspool, and for that purpose, at any time between sunrise and sunset, may enter upon any lands or buildings with assistants and workmen, and cause the ground to be opened where he or they may think fit, doing as little damage as may be.

Expense of inspection when to be borne by the Municipality.

(2) The expense of such inspection, and of causing the ground to be closed and made good as before shall be borne by the Municipality, unless the sewer, drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully or cesspool is found to be in bad order o condition, or was constructed in contravention of the provisions of any enactment, o of any by-laws of the Municipality in force at the time, in which case such expenses shall be paid by the owner of such sewer, drain, privy. water-closet, house-gully or cesspool and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

Municipality may execute certain works under this sub-chapter without allowing option to person concerned of executing the same.

112. (1) The Municipality may, if they think fit, cause any work of the nature to which this sub-chapter applies to be executed by municipal or other agency under their own orders, without first of all giving the person by whom the same would otherwise have to be executed the option of doing the same.

Expenses in such cases by whom to be paid.

(2) The expenses of any work so done shall be paid by the person aforesaid, unless the Municipality shall, by a general or special order or resolution, sanction, as they are hereby empowered to sanction, the execution of such work at the charge of the municipal fund.

(3) Any pipes, fittings, receptacles, or other appliances for or connected with the drainage of private buildings or lands shall, if supplied, constructed or erected at the expense of the Municipality, be deemed to be municipal property, unless the Municipality shall have transferred their interest therein to the owner of such buildings or lands.

(4) Powers regarding external structures, etc.

Permission necessary for certain projections.

113. (1) The Municipality may give written permission to the owners or occupiers of buildings in public streets to put up open verandahs, balconies or rooms, to project from any upper storey thereof, at such height from the surface of the street as the Municipality may fix by by-laws from time to time, and to an extent not exceeding four feet beyond the line of the plinth or basement wall, and may prescribe [1] [the conditions subject to which permission may be given for the projection over such streets of roofs, eaves, weather-boards, shop-boards and the like.]

[2][(1A) Permission granted under sub-section (1) may be permanent or for such period at a time as may be specified in writing when such permission is granted.]

[3][(2) (a)] Any such owner or occupier putting up any such projections as aforesaid without such permission or in contravention of such orders, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees, and if any such owner or occupier, fails to remove any such projection as aforesaid in repect of which he has been convicted under this section, he shall be punished with further fine which may extend to five rupees for each day on which such failure or neglect continues.

[4][(b) Notwithstanding any proceedings which may be taken under clause (a) of this sub-section, the Municipality may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of any such building to remove or alter any such projection which has been constructed either without, or contrary in any manner to, the permission of the Municipality.]

Removal of projections.

(3) The Municipality may by written notice require the owner or occupier of any building to remove or alter any projection, encroachment or obstruction which, whether erected before or after the site of such building became part of a municipal district, shall have been erected or placed against or in front of such building, and which—

(a) overhangs or juts into, or in any way projects or encroaches upon, any public street, so as to be an obstruction to safe and convenient passage along such street, or which

(b) projects and encroaches into or upon any uncovered aqueduct, drain or sewer in such street, so as to obstruct or interfere with such aqueduct, drain or sewer, or the proper working thereof:

Provided always that the Municipality shall, if such projection, encroachment, or obstruction shall have been made in any place before the date on which such place became part of a municipal district, or after such date with the written permission of the Municipahty, make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damage by such removal or alteration; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount of such compensation, the same shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in section 160.

Troughs and pipes for rain water.

114. The Municipality may by written notice require the owner of every building in any street to put up and keep in good condition proper troughs and pipes for catching and carrying the water from the roof and other parts of such building, and for discharging the same, in such manner as they may think fit, so that it shall not fall upon the persons passing aloug the streets.

Fixing of brackets, etc., to houses.

115. The Municipality may erect or fix to the outside of any building brackets for lamps to be lighted with oil or gas, or subject to the provisions of the [1]Indian Electricity Act, 1887, for lamps to be lighted with electricity or otherwise, or subject to the provisions of the [2] Indidn Telegraph Act, 1885, as amended by subsequent enactments, for telegraph wires or telephonic wires, or for the conduct of electricity for locomotive purposes or such pipes as they may deem necessary for the proper ventilation of sewers and water-works, and such brackets and pipes shall be erected so as not to occasion any inconvenience or nuisance to the said building or any others in the neighbourhood. XIII of 1887. XIII of 1885.

Naming streets and numbering houses.

116. (1) The Municipality may from time to time cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of any building at or near each end, corner or entrance to every street, the name by which such street is to be known, and may from time to time fix a number in a conspicious place on the outer side of any building, or at the entrance of the enclosure thereof fronting the street.

(2) Any person who destroys, pulls down or defaces any such name or number or puts any name or number different from that put up by the Municipality, and any owner or occupier of any building who shall not at his own expense keep such number in good order after it has been put up thereon, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees.

Penalty for defacing building, etc.

117. Any person

(a) who without the consent of the owner or occupier affixes any posting bill, placard or other paper or means of advertisement against or upon any building, wall, board, fence or pale, or

(b) who without such consent as aforesaid writes upon, soils, defaces or marks any such building, wall, board, fence or pale with chalk or paint or in and other way whatsoever, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

Removal and trimming of hedges, trees, etc.

118. The Municipality may by written notice require the owner or occupier of any land so to trim or prune the hedges thereof bordering any public street that the said hedges may not exceed the height of four feet from the level of the street, and width of four feet, and to cut down, lop, or trim all trees or shrubs which in any way overhang, endanger or obstruct, or which they deem likely to overhang, endanger, or obstruct any public street or to cause damage thereto, or which so overhang any public tank, well, or other provision for water-supply as to pollute, or be likely to pollute, the water thereof.

(5) Powers for promotion of public health, safety and convenience.

Ruinous or dangerous buildings.

119. (1) If any building, or anything affixed thereon, be deemed by the Municipality to be in a ruinous state or likely to fall or in any other way dangerous to any inhabitants of such building or of any neighbouring building or to any occupier thereof, or to passengers, the Municipality shall immediately, if it appears to them to be necessary, cause a proper hoard or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers; all expenses incurred by the Municipality under this sub-section shall be paid by the owner or occupier of such building and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

(2) The Municipality shall also cause notice in writing to be given to the owner or occupier, requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such building, or thing affixed thereon. as the case shall require, and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure such building or thing within three days after the service of such notice, and complete such work with due diligence, the Municipality shall cause all or so much of such building or thing, as they shall think necessary, to be taken down, repaired or otherwise secured : Action to be taken on default by owner or occupier.

Provided always that if the danger be not of hourly imminence, it shall be at the discretion of the Municipality, instead of themselves causing a hoard or fence to be put up, to issue in the first instance notice in writing to the owner or occupier to put up a proper hoard or fence, and in the event of the owner or occupier failing to put up within two days from the service of such notice a hoard or fence which the Municipality consider sufficient in the circumstances of the case, the Municipality shall at once cause such hoard or fence to be put up and thereafter proceed as provided in sub-sections (1) and (2). Proviso if danger is not imminent.

120. (1) The Municipality may at any time by written notice require that the owner of, or any person who has the control over, any well, stream, channel, tank or other source of water-supply, shall, whether it is private property or not, Powers and duties with regard to dangerous, stagnant or insanitary sources of water-supply.

(a) keep and maintain any such source of water-supply, other than a stream, in good repair, or

(b) within a reasonable time to be specified in the notice, cleanse any such source of water-supply from silt, refuse and decaying vegetation, or

(c) in such manner as the Municipality prescribe, protect any such source of water-supply from pollution by surface drainage, or

(d) within twenty-four hours of such notice, repair, protect or enclose in such manner as the Municipality approve, any such source of water-supply other than a stream in its natural flow, if for want of sufficient repair, protection or enclosure, such source of water-supply is in the opinion of the Municipality dangerous to the health or safety of the public or of any persons having occasion to use or to pass or approach the same, or shall

(e) desist from using and from permitting others to use for drinking purposes any such source of water-supply which not being a stream in its natural flow, is proved to the satisfaction of the Municipality to be unfit for drinking ; or

(f) if notwithstanding any such notice under clause (e) such use continues and cannot in the opinion of the Municipality be otherwise prevented, close, either temporarily or permanently, or fill up or enclose or fence in such manner as the Municipality consider sufficient to prevent such use, such source of water-supply as aforesaid ;

(g) drain off or otherwise remove from any such source of water-supply, or from any land or premises or receptacle or reservoir attached or adjacent thereto, any stagnant water which the Municipality consider is injurious to health or offensive to the neighbourhood.

(2) If the owner or person having control as aforesaid, fails or neglects to comply with any such requisition within the time required by or under the provisions of sub-section (1), the Municipality may, and if in their opinion immediate action is necessary to protect the health or safety of any person, shall at once proceed to execute the work required by such notice, and all the expenses incurred therein by the Municipality shall be paid by the owner of, or person having control over, such water-supply, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII : Remedy on non-compliance with directions issued.

Provided that in the case of any well or private stream or of any private channel, tank or other source of water-supply, the water of which is used by the public or by any section of the public as of right, the expenses incurred by the Municipality or necessarily incurred by such owner or person having such control, may, if the Municipality so direct, be paid from the municipal fund.

Displacing pavements, etc.

121. (1) Whoever displaces, takes up or makes any alteration in the pavement, gutter, flags or other materials, of any public street, or the fences, walls, or posts thereof, or any municipal lamp, lamp-post, bracket, water-post, hydrant, or other such municipal property therein, without the written consent of the Municipality, or other lawful authority, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

[1][(2) Any person who has displaced, taken up or made alteration in, any such pavement, gutter, flags or other materials, or in such fences, walls, posts, municipal lamps, lamp-posts, brackets, water-posts hydrants or other municipal property, whether with or without the consent required under sub-section (1), shall be liable to pay the expense which the municipality may incur in replacing or restoring the same. Such expenses shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.]

Obstructions and encroachments upon public streets and open spaces.

122. (1) Whoever in any place after it has become a municipal district, shall have built or set up, or shall build or set up, any wall or any fence, rail, post, stall, verandah, platform, plinth, step or any projecting structure or thing, or other encroachment or obstruction, in any public street, or shall deposit or cause to be placed or deposited any box, bale, package or merchandise, or any other thing in such street, or in or over or upon, any open drain, gutter, sewer or aqueduct in such street, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees [2][and with further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day on which such projection, encroachment, obstruction or deposit continues after the date of first conviction for such offence.]

(2) The Municipality shall have power to remove any such obstruction or encroachment, and shall have the like power to remove any unauthorised obstruction or encroachment of the like nature in any open space not being private property, whether such space is vested in the Municipality or not, provided that if the space be vested in His Majesty the permission of the Collector shall have first been obtained, and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the person who has caused the said obstruction or encroachment, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

(3) Whoever, not being duly authorised, in that behalf, removes earth, sand or other material from, or makes any encroachment in or upon, any open space which is not private property, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and, in the case of an encroachment, with further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day on which the encroachment continues after the date of first conviction for such offence.

(4) Nothing contained in the section shall prevent the Municipality from allowing any temporary occupation of or erections in any public street on occasions of festivals and ceremonies, or the piling of fuel in by-streets and spaces for not more than four days, and in such manner as not to inconvenience the public or any individual

[1][(5) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to any projection duly authorized under sub-section (1) of section 113, or in any case where permission has been given under sub-section (4).]

Hoards to be set up during repairs, etc.

123. (1) Every person intending to build or take down any building, or to alter or repair the outward part of any building, in such a position or in such circumstances as the work is likely to cause or may cause obstruction, danger or inconvenience in any street, shall before beginning such work,

(a) first obtain a licence in writing from the Municipality so to do, and

(b) cause sufficient hoards or fences to be put up in order to separate the building where such works are being carried on from the street and shall maintain such hoard or fence standing and in good condition to the satisfaction of the Municipality during such time as the public safety or convenience requires, and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night, and shall remove the same when directed by the Municipality.

(2) Whoever contravenes any of the provisions of this section shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and with further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day or night, as the case may be, on which such contravention continues, after the date of the first conviction.

Fencing and lighting during repairs, etc.

124. (1) The Municipality shall, during the construction or repair of any of the streets, sewers, drains or other premises vested in them, take proper precaution for guarding against accident, by shoring up and protecting the adjoining buildings and shall cause such bars, chains or posts, to be fixed across or in any of the streets to prevent the passage of carriages, carts, or other vehicles, or of cattle or horses, while such works are carried on, as to them shall seem proper; and the Municipality shall cause any sewer or drain or other works in streets, during the construction or repair thereof, to be lighted with a sufficient light and guarded during the night.

(2) Whoever, takes down, alters or removes any of the said bars, chains or posts, or removes or extinguishes any such light, without the authority or consent of the Municipality, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Timber not to be deposited or hole made in a street without permission.

125. (1) No person shall, without the written permission of the Municipality or otherwise than in accordance with such conditions as may therein be prescribed, make a hole in any street or erect or deposit thereon, any timber, stone, brick, earth or other material that has been, or is intended to be, used for building; and such, permission shall be terminable at the discretion of the Municipality; and when such permission is granted to any person, he shall, at his own expense, cause such materials or such hole to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed until the materials are removed, or the hole is filled up or otherwise made secure, to the satisfaction of the Municipality, and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night.

(2) Whoever contravenes any of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees, and with further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day or night, as the case may be, on which such contravention continues, after the date of the first conviction.

Dangerous quarrying.

126. [2]* If in the opinion of the Municipality the working of any quarry or the removal of stone, earth or other material from the soil in any place, is dangerous to or in case of poverty, or for other cause which the Municipality in the circumstances of the case consider reasonable, at the expense of the Municipality ;

(f) power to provide the means, and to prescribe places, for disinfecting or washing bedding or other articles which have been exposed to infection from any dangerous disease, and to direct the destruction thereof ;

(g) power—

(i) to provide and maintain suitable conveyances for the free carriage of persons suffering from any dangerous disease, and

(ii) when such provision is made, to prohibit the conveyance of such persons in all or any public conveyances, and

(iii) to direct that any conveyances that may at any time be used for conveying any such person shall be immediately disinfected ;

(h) power to prohibit—

(i) any person suffering from any dangerous disease from wilfully exposing himself, without proper precautions against spreading the said disease, in any street or in any school or factory, or in any inn, dharamshala, theatre, market or other place of public resort, or

(ii) any person in charge of any person so suffering from so exposing such sufferer ;

(i) power to prohibit any person from removing to another place, or transferring to another person, except for the purpose of disinfection, any article which the person prohibited knows, or has reason to believe, has been exposed to infection of any kind whatsoever from any dangerous disease ;

(j) power to prohibit the letting of or the providing of accommodation in any hotel, inn, dharamshala or serai, in which a person has, or in which there is reason to believe that a person has, been suffering from a dangerous disease, unless and until the person desiring so to let or provide accommodation shall have had the building, or part thereof, and any article therein likely to retain infection, disinfected to the satisfaction of the Municipality or of such officer as the Municipality appoint in this behalf;

(k) power, with the previous permission in each case of a Magistrate exercising not less than second class powers, to destroy any insanitary huts or sheds in which there is reason to believe that persons have been suffering from dangerous disease.

(3) The Municipality may, in their discretion, give compensation to any person who sustains substantial loss by the destruction of any property under this section, but, except as allowed by the Municipality, no claim for compensation shall lie for any loss or damage caused by any exercise of the powers specified therein.

Penalties for disobedience to an order passed in exercise of such powers.

(4) Any person who in a municipal district disobeys any order which is for the time being in force therein, and which has been passed by the Municipality in exercise of any power conferred on such Municipality under this section, or obstructs any officer of the Municipality or other person acting under the authority of the Municipality in carrying out executively any such order, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Duties of Municipality on threatened or actual outbreak of dangerous disease.

145. (1) In the event of the municipal district or any part thereof being at any time threatened or visited with an outbreak of any dangerous disease the Municipality shall take all such measures as they deem necessary for the purpose of preventing, meeting, mitigating or suppressing such outbreak.

(2) In such event as aforesaid [1][the Commissioner], may by special notification, declaring that such municipal district is threatened or visited with an outbreak of a dangerous disease, confer on the Municipality all or any of the additional powers specified in the following sub-section, and such Municipality shall, subject to such limitations, restrictions and conditions, if any, [2][as the Commissioner] in the same or in any subsequent notification may prescribe, exercise every such power so conferred on them until the same is withdrawn by means of a like notification.

(3) The powers all or any of which may be conferred under the preceding sub-section are—

(a) power to order, subject to the conditions,

(i) that the permission of [3][a Taluka Magistrate] shall be in each case first obtained, and

(ii) that accommodation for all persons to whom the order refers is available, or shall be provided, elsewhere, the evacuation of an infected building used as a dwelling, or of any part thereof, or of any building so used adjacent to such building, by the person or persons residing, whether habitually or temporarily, therein ;

(b) power to direct the examination by a medical officer of persons, and if necessary, the disinfection of the clothing, bedding or other suspicious articles belonging to persons, either arriving from places outside the municipal district or residing in any building adjacent to any infected building, and to direct that any such person shall give his address and present himself daily for medical examination at such time and places as may be prescribed, for a period not exceeding ten days ;

(c) power to prohibit either generally, or by special order in any individual case, assemblages consisting of any number of persons exceeding fifty, in any place whether public or private, or in any circumstances, or for any purpose, if in the opinion, recorded in writing, of the Civil Surgeon of the district or other medical officer appointed by the [4][[5][State] Government] on this behalf, such assemblages in such place, in such circumstances or for such purpose, would be likely to become a means of spreading the disease or of rendering it more virulent.

(4) The Municipality may in their discretion give compensation to any person who sustains substantial loss by the destruction of any property under this section ; but except as allowed by the Municipality, no claim for compensation shall lie for any loss or damage caused by any exercise of the powers specified therein.

(6) In the event of non-compliance with the terms of the notice it shall be lawful for the Municipality to take such action or such steps as may be necessary for the completion of the act thereby required to be done, and all the expenses therein incurred by the Municipality shall be paid by the person or persons upon whom the notice was served, and shall be recoverable in the manner provided in [1][section 160A].

Punishment for disobedience to orders and notices not punishable under any other section.

155. Whoever disobeys or fails to comply with any lawful direction given by any written notice issued by a Municipality under any power conferred by this Chapter, or fails to comply with the conditions subject to which any permission was given to him by the Municipality under any power so conferred, shall, if the disobedience or failure is not an offence punishable under any other section, be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and with further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day on which the said disobedience or failure continues after the date of the first conviction :

Provided that when the notice fixes a time within which a certain act is to be done, and no time is specified in this Act, it shall rest with the Magistrate to determine whether the time so fixed was a reasonable time within the meaning of this Act.

Municipality in default of owner or occupier may execute works and recover expenses.

156. (1) Whenever, under the provisions of this Act, any work is required to be executed by the owner or occupier of any building or land, and default is made in the execution of such work, the Municipality, whether any penalty is or is not provided for such default, may cause such work to be executed ; and the expenses thereby incurred shall, unless otherwise expressly provided in this Act, be paid to them by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII either in one sum or by instalments as to the Municipality may seem fit :

Provided that—

Agreement for construction of drainage and water connections.

(a) whenever any drainage scheme or water-works scheme has been commenced by any Municipality, it shall be lawful for the Municipality, without prejudice to their powers under sub-section (1) or section 101 or any other provision of this Act, to make a special agreement with the owner of any building or land as to the manner in which the drainage or water-connection thereof shall be carried out, and pecuniary or other assistance, if any, which the Municipality shall render, and any payment agreed upon by the owner shall be recovered in accordance with the terms of such agreement, or, in default, in the manner described in sub-sections (2) and (3) :

Provided also that—

Improvement expenses.

Power to levy charges on occupier who may deduct the same from his rent.

(2) If the defaulter be the owner of the building or land, the Municipality may, by way of additional remedy, whether a suit or proceeding has been brought or taken against such owner or not, require, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) the payment of all or any part of the expenses payable by the owner for the time being, from the person who then, or any time thereafter, occupies the building or land under such owner ; and in default of payment thereof by such occupier on demand the same may be levied from such occupier, and every amount so leviable shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII ; every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord so much as has been so paid by or recovered from such occupier in respect of any such expenses.

Occupiers not to be liable for more than the amount of rent due.

(3) No occupier of any building or land shall be liable to pay more money in respect of any expenses charged by this Act on the owner thereof, than the amount of rent which is due from such occupier for the building or land in respect of which such expenses are payable at the time of the demand made upon him, or which at any time after such demand and notice not to pay the same to his landlord, has accrued and become payable by such occupier, unless he neglect or refuse, upon application made to him for that purpose by the Municipality, truly to disclose the amount of his rent, and the name and the address of the person to whom such rent is payable ; but the burden of proof that the sum demanded of any such occupier is greater than the rent which was due by him at the time of such demand, or which has since accrued, shall be upon such occupier :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be taken to affect any special contract made between any such occupier and the owner respecting the payment of the expense of any such works as aforesaid.

Occupiers, in default of owner, may execute works and deduct expenses from his rent.

157. Whenever default is made by the owner of any building or land in the execution of any work required to be executed by him, the occupier of such building or land may, with the approval of the Municipality, cause such work to be executed, and the expense thereof shall be paid to him by the owner, or the amount may be deducted out of the rent from time to time becoming due from him to such owner.

Proceeding if any occupier opposes the execution of the Act.

158. If the occupier of any building or land prevents the owner thereof from carrying into effect in respect of such building or land, any of the provisions of this Act, after notice of his intention so to carry them into effect has been given by the owner to such occupier, [1][any Executive Magistrate upon proof thereof, and upon application of the owner, may make an order in writing requiring such occupier to permit the owner to execute all such works, with respect to such building or land, as may be necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act, and may also, if he thinks fit, order the occupier to pay to the owner the costs relating to such application or order ; and if, after the expiration of eight days from the date of the order, such occupier continue to refuse to permit such owner to execute such work, such occupier shall, for every day during which he so continues to refuse, be punished with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees ; and every such owner during the continuance of such refusal shall be discharged from any penalties to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of his default in executing such works.

[1] These words were substituted for the words " any Magistrate " by Bom. 8 of 1954, s. 2, Schedule—Part III.

Entry for purposes of the Act.

159. It shall be lawful for the president or vice president, or any councillor or officer authorized by the Municipality for such purposes, to enter for the purposes of this Act, between sunrise and sunset, into and upon any building or land, as well for the purpose of making any survey or inspection they may be entitled to make as for the purpose of executing any work authorised by this Act to be executed by them :

Provided that, except when herein otherwise provided, no building or land which may be occupied at the time shall be entered unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without twenty-four hours' written notice thereof having been given to the said occupier :

Provided also that in the case of buildings used as human dwellings, due regard shall be paid to the social and religious customs of the occupiers.

Arbitration in case of compensation, etc.

160. (1) [1][Save as expressly provided in section 160B, if a dispute arises] with respect to any [2][compensation or damages which are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount, and if necessary the apportionment of the same, shall be ascertained and determined by a panchayat of five persons, of whom two shall be appointed by the Municipality, two by the party [3][to or from whom such [2][compensation or damages may be payable or recoverable] and one, who shall be sir-panch, shall be selected by the members already appointed as above.

(2) If either party or both parties fail to appoint members, or if the members fail to select a sir-panch within one month from the date of either party receiving written notice from the other of claim to such [2][compensation or damages], such members as may be necessary to constitute the panchayat shall be appointed, at the instance of either party, by the District Judge.

(3) In the event of the panchayat not giving a decision within one month from the date of the selection of the sir-panch or of the appointment by the District Court of such members as may be necessary to constitute the panchayat, the matter shall, on application by either party, be determined by the District Court which shall, in cases in which the compensation is claimed in respect of land, follow as far as may be the procedure provided by the [4] Land Acquisition Act, 1894, for proceedings in matters referred for the determination of the Court : I of 1894.

Provided that,—

(a) no application to the Collector for a reference shall be necessary, and

(b) the Court shall have full power to give and apportion the costs of all proceedings in any manner it thinks fit.

Costs or expenses how determined and recovered.

[5][160A. If a dispute arises with respect to any costs or expenses which are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount, and if necessary the apportionment of the same, shall, save where it is otherwise expressly provided in this Act, be ascertained and determined by the Municipality and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.]

[5] Section 160A was inserted by s. 27 of the Bombay District Municipal Amendment Act, 1914 (Bom. 8 of 1914).

[1][160AA. (1) If on a request made by the president of a Municipality in that behalf or on its or his own motion, it appears to the State Government or an officer authorised by the State Government, (hereinafter referred to as the requisitioning authority), that in connection with any election under this Act,— Requisitioning of premises, vehicles, etc., for municipal elections.

(a) any premises are needed or are likely to be needed for the purpose of being used as a polling station or for the storage of ballot boxes after the poll has been taken, or

(b) any vehicle, vessel or animal is needed or is likely to be needed for the purpose of transport of ballot boxes to, or from, any polling station, or transport of members of the police force for maintaining order during the conduct of such election, or transport of any officer or other person for the performance of any duties in connection with such election, the requisitioning authority may be order in writing requisition such premises or such vehicle, vessel or animal, as the case may be, and may make such further orders as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient in connection with the requisitioning :

Provided that no vehicle, vessel or animal which is being lawfully used by a candidate or his agent for any purpose connected with the election of such candidate shall be requisitioned under this sub-section until the completion of the poll at such election.

(2) The requisition shall be effected by an order in writing addressed to the person deemed by the requisitioning authority to be the owner or person in possession of the property and such order shall be served in the manner prescribed by rules made by the State Government on the person to whom it is addressed.

(3) Whenever any property is requisitioned under sub-section (1), the period of such requisition shall not extend beyond the period for which such property is required for any of the purposes mentioned in that sub-section.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, "premises" means any land, building or part of a building and includes a hut, shed or other structure or any part thereof.

160B. (1) Whenever in pursuance of section 160AA, the requisitioning authority requisitions any premises, the Municipality shall pay to the persons interested compensation the amount of which shall be determined by taking into consideration the following, namely :— Payment of compensation.

(i) the rent payable in respect of the premises or if no rent is so payable, the rent payable for similar premises in the locality ;

(ii) if in consequence of the requisition of the premises the person interested is compelled to change his residence or place of business, the reasonable expenses (if any) incidental to such change :

Provided that where any person interested being aggrieved by the amount of compensation so determined makes an application to the requisitioning authority within the time prescribed by rules made by the State Government, for referring the matter to an arbitrator, the amount of compensation to be paid shall be such as the arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the requisitioning authority may determine :

Provided further that where there is any dispute as to the title to receive the compensation or as to the apportionment of the amount of compensation, it shall be referred by the requisitioning authority to an arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the State Government or the requisitioning authority for determination, and shall be determined in accordance with the decision of such arbitrator.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-section, the expression "person interested" means the person who was in actual possession of the premises requisitioned under section 160AA immediately before the requisition, or where no person was in actual possession, the owner of such premises.

(2) Whenever in pursuance of section 160AA the requisitioning authority requisitions any vehicle, vessel or animal, the municipality shall pay to the owner thereof compensation the amount of which shall be determined by the requisitioning authority, on the basis of the fares or rates prevailing in the locality for the hire of such, vehicle, vessel or animal :

Provided that where the owner of such vehicle, vessel or animal being aggrieved by the amount of compensation so determined makes an application to the requisitioning authority within the time prescribed by rules made by the State Government for referring the matter to an arbitrator, the amount of compensation to be paid shall be such as the arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the requisitioning authority may determine :

Provided further that where immediately before the requisitioning, the vehicle or vessel was by virtue of a hire-purchase agreement in the possession of the person other than the owner, the amount determined under this sub-section as the total compensation payable in respect of the requisition shall be apportioned between that person and the owner in such manner as they may agree upon and in default of agreement, in such manner as an arbitrator appointed by the requisitioning authority in this behalf may decide.

Power to obtain information.

160C. The requisitioning authority may with a view to requisitioning any property under section 160AA or determining the compensation payable under section 160B by order, require any person to furnish to such authority as may be specified in the order such information in his possession relating to such property as may be so specified.

Eviction from requisitioned premises.

160D. (1) Any person remaining in possession of any requisitioned premises in contravention of any order made under section 160AA may be summarily evicted from the premises by any officer empowered by the requisitioning authority in this behalf.

(2) Any officer so empowered may, after giving to any woman not appearing in public reasonable warning and facility to withdraw, remove or open any lock or bolt or break open any door of any building or do any other act necessary for effecting such eviction.

Release of premises from requisition.

160E. (1) When any premises requisitioned under section 160AA are to be released from requisition, the possession thereof shall be delivered to the person from whom possession was taken at the time when the premises were requisitioned, or if there were no such persons, to the person deemed by the requisitioning authority to be the owner of such premises and such delivery of possession shall be a full discharge of the requisitioning authority from all liabilities in respect of such delivery, but shall not prejudice any rights in respect of the premises which any other person may be entitled by due process of law to enforce against the person to whom possession of the premises is so delivered.

(2) Where the person to whom possession of any premises requisitioned under section 160AA is to be given under sub-section (1) cannot be found or is not readily ascertainable or has no agent or any other person empowered to accept delivery on his behalf the requisitioning authority shall cause a notice declaring that such premises are released from requisition to be affixed on some conspicuous part of such premises and publish the notice in the Official Gazette.

(3) When a notice referred to in sub-section (2) is published in the Official Gazette, the premises specified in such notice shall cease to be subject to requisition on and from the date of such publication and be deemed to have been delivered to the person entitled to possession thereof and the requisitioning authority or the municipality shall not be liable for any compensation or other claim in respect of such premises for any period after the said date.

Penalty for contravention of any order regarding requisitioning.

160F. If any person contravenes any order made under section 160AA or section 160C he shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine or with both.

CHAPTER X.

PROSECUTIONS, SUITS AND POWERS OF POLICE.

Municipality may prosecute.

161. (1) The Municipality [1][and, in the case of offences against any of the provisions of this Act mentioned in section 183 (d), the chief officer] may direct any prosecution for any public nuisance whatever, and may order proceedings to be taken for the recovery of any penalties, and for the punishment of any persons offending against the provisions of this Act, or of any by-law thereunder, and may order the expenses of such prosecutions or other proceedings to be paid out of the municipal fund :

Provided that no prosecution for an offence under this Act [2][or any by-law framed thereunder] shall be instituted except within six months [3][next after the date of the commission of the offence or if such date is not known or the offence is a continuing one within six months next after the commission or the discovery of such offence.]

Jurisdiction of Magistrate.

(2) Any prosecution under this Act or under any by-laws thereunder may, save as therein otherwise provided, be instituted before any Magistrate and every fine or penalty imposed under or by virtue of this Act or any by-law thereunder, and also all claims to compensation or other expenses for the recovery of which no special provision is otherwise made in this Act, may be recovered on application to such Magistrate, by the distress and sale of any moveable property within the limits of his jurisdiction belonging to the person from whom the money is claimable.

Distress lawful though defective in form.

162. No distress levied by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in any summons, conviction or warrant of distress or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him ; but all persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Damage to municipal property how made good.

163. If through any act, neglect or default, on account whereof any person shall have incurred any penalty imposed by or under this Act, any damage to the property of the Municipality shall have been committed by such person, he shall be liable to make good such damage as well as to pay such penalty, and the amount of damage shall, in case of dispute, be determined by the Magistrate by whom the person incurring such penalty is convicted, and on non-payment of such damage on demand the same shall be levied by distress, and such Magistrate shall issue his warrant accordingly.

Alternative procedure by suit.

164. In lieu of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realise by so proceeding the whole or any part of any amount recoverable under the provisions of Chapter VIII, or of any compensation, expenses, charges or damages awarded under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Municipality to sue in any Court of competent jurisdiction the person liable to pay the same, as also any other person who may have in any other way caused, or may appear likely to cause, any injury to any property, rights or privileges of the Municipality

[1] These words, figures and letter were inserted by Bom. 8 of 1914, s. 28.
[2] These words were inserted by Bom. 35 of 1955, s. 12 (a).
[3] These words were substituted for the words " next after the commission of such offence " ibid., s. 12(b).

Power to compromise.

165. (1) The Municipality may compound or compromise in respect of any suit instituted by or against them, or, in respect of any claim or demand arising out of any contract entered into by them under this Act, for such sum of money or other compensation as they shall deem sufficient :

Provided that, if any sanction in the making of any contract is required by this Act, the like previous sanction shall be obtained for compounding or compromising any claim or demand arising out of such contract :

[1][Provided further that if any such suit is in respect of land leased or sold under sub-section (1) of section 90 or in respect of any immovable property sold or leased for a term exceeding seven years or otherwise transferred, it shall not be lawful for the municipality to compound or compromise in respect of the suit except with the previous sanction of the Commissioner.]

(2) The Municipality may make compensation out of the municipal fund to any person sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in them, their officers and servants under this Act.

Assistance for the recovery of rent on land.

166. For the purpose of the recovery of any amount due on account of rent from any person to a Municipality in respect of any land vested in [2][or otherwise held by] such Municipality, the Municipality shall be deemed to be superior holders, and every such person an inferior holder, of such land, within the meaning of sections 86 and 87 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879, and the Municipality as superior holder shall be entitled, for the recovery of every such amount, to all the assistance to which under the said sections superior holders are entitled for the recovery of rent or land-revenue payable to them by inferior holders. Bom. V of 1879.

Bar of suits against municipality, its officers, servants, etc., for acts done in good faith.

[3][167. No suit shall lie in respect of anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act against any municipality or against any committee constituted under this Act or against any officer or servant of a municipality or against any person acting under and in accordance with the directions of any such municipality, committee, officer or servant or of a magistrate.]

Limitation of suits against municipality, its officers and servants for acts done in pursuance or execution of this Act.

[3][167A. (1) No suit shall lie against a municipality or against any officer or servant of a municipality in respect of any act done in pursuance or execution or intended execution of this Act, or in respect of any alleged neglect or default in the execution of this Act—

(a) unless it is commenced within six months next after the accrual of the cause of action ; and

(b) until the expiration of one month after notice in writing has been, in the case of a municipality, delivered or left at the municipal office and, in the case of an officer or servant of a municipality, delivered to him or left at his office

[1] This proviso was added by Bom. 52 of 1949, s. 32.

[2] These words were inserted by s. 2 of the Bombay District Municipal Act (1901) Amendment Act, 1902 (Bom. 3 of 1902).

or place of abode; and all such notices shall state with reasonable particularity the cause of action and the name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff and of his advocate, pleader or agent, if any, for the purpose of the suit.

(2) At the trial of any such suit—

(a) the plaintiff shall not be permitted to adduce evidence relating to any cause of action save such as is set forth in the notice delivered or left by him as aforesaid;

(b) if the suit be for damages and if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before the action was brought, the plaintiff shall not recover more than the amount so tendered and shall pay all costs incurred by the defendant after such tender.

(3) If the defendant in any such suit is an officer or servant of a municipality, payment of any sum or part thereof payable by him in or in consequence of the suit may, with the sanction of the managing committee, be made from the municipal fund.]

Powers of Police officers.

168. (1) Any Police officer may arrest any person committing in his view any offence against any of the provisions of this Act or of any by-law thereunder, if the name and address of such person be unknown to him, and if he decline to give his name and address, or if the Police officer have reason to doubt the accuracy of such name and address if given, and such person may be detained at the station-house until his name and address shall be correctly ascertained:

Provided that no person arrested shall be detained without the order of a Magistrate longer than shall be necessary for bringing him before a Magistrate, or than twenty-four hours at the utmost.

(2) It shall also be the duty of all Police officers to give immediate information to the Municipality of the commission of any offence against the provisions of this Act or of any by-law thereunder, and to assist all municipal officers and servants in the exercise of their lawful authority.

CHAPTER XI

Municipal Accounts.

Presentation of accounts.

169. (1) Every Municipality shall have prepared and laid before them, at their periodical general meetings, complete accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the Municipality since the 1st day of April last preceding, and at a general meeting which shall, if possible, be held on such day between the 10th January and the 1st of March as may be fixed in this behalf by the rules of the Municipality, a complete account of the actual and expected receipt and expenditure for the financial year ending on the 31st March next following, together with a budget estimate of the income and expenditure of the Municipality for the financial year to commence on the 1st April next following. Budget Estimates.

(2) The Municipality shall thereupon decide upon the appropriations, and the ways and means contained in the budget of the year to commence on the 1st April next following. The budget so sanctioned may be varied or altered from time to time, as circumstances may render desirable, at a special general meeting called for the purpose.

(3) The Municipality shall at the general meeting in April, or after audit of the past year's accounts, if such audit has not before that general meeting taken place, pass the accounts of the past year.

170. [1][(1) Independently of the audit provided for under the provisions of the Bombay Local Fund Audit Act, 1930, the municipal accounts may be audited at such intervals and by such agency as may be prescribed in the rules of the municipality.] Audit of accounts. Bom. XXV of 1930.

(2) The auditor, or auditors, shall, for the purposes of their office, have access to all the accounts and other records of the Municipality.

(3) The Municipality shall pay from the Municipal fund such charges for the audit as may be agreed upon.[2] [3]* * * * * *

171. The Municipality shall as soon as the annual accounts have been finally passed by them, transmit to the [4][[5][State] Government] or any officer duly authorised by [6][it], in this behalf, a copy thereof, or an account in such form as the [4][[5][State] Government] may prescribe and shall furnish such details and vouchers relating to the same as the [4][[5][State] Government] or such officer may from time to time direct. Transmission of accounts to [5][State] Government.

172. The quarterly and annual accounts of receipts and expenditure, and the budget when sanctioned, shall be open to public inspection, and shall be published in the vernacular language of the district in such manner as the Municipality may prescribe in this behalf. Publication of accounts.

CHAPTER XII.

CONTROL.

173. (1) [7][The Director of Local Authorities or the Collector] shall have power— [8][Powers] of inspection and supervision.

(a) to enter on and inspect, or cause to be entered on and inspected, any immoveable property occupied by any Municipality, or any work in progress under them or under their direction;

175. (1) In cases of emergency the [2][Director of Local Authorities] may provide for the execution of any work, or the doing of any act, which a Municipality are empowered to execute or do, and the immediate execution or doing of which is, in his opinion, necessary for the health or safety of the public, and may direct that the expense of executing the work or doing the act, with a reasonable remuneration to the person appointed to execute or do it, shall be forthwith paid by the Municipality.

(2) If the expense and remuneration are not so paid, the [2][Director of Local Authorities] may make an order directing any person, who for the time being has custody of any moneys on behalf of the Municipality, to pay such expense and remuneration from such moneys as he may have in his hands or may from time to time receive and such person shall be bound to obey such order.

(3) The provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 174 shall apply, so far as may be, to any order made under this section.

Power of Commissioner to prevent extravagance in the employment of establishment.

176. If in the opinion of the Commissioner the number of persons who are employed by a Municipality as officers or servants or whom a Municipality propose to employ, or the remuneration assigned by the Municipality to those persons, or to any particular person, is excessive, the Municipality shall, on the requirement of the Commissioner, reduce the number of the said persons or the remuneration of the said person or persons :

[2] These words were substituted for the word "Collector," ibid, s. 16,

Provided that the Municipality may appeal against any such requirement to the [1][Provincial Government], [2][decision of which] shall be conclusive.

Provincial Government may require any City Municipality to appoint a chief officer, health officer or an engineer.

177. (1) It shall be lawful for the [1][Provincial Government]—

(i) to require, if in [3][its] opinion at any time such an appointment is necessary, the appointment of a chief officer or of a health officer, or of an engineer, or any one or more of such appointments, to be made by any City Municipality ;

(ii) to make in [3][its] discretion an order vetoing the appointment, or continuance in any such office, of any person selected therefor or appointed thereto by any such Municipality, and the tenure of such office by any such person shall cease and determine on and from the date on which such order is communicated to the Municipality ;

(iii) to require that any person appointed to be a chief officer [4][or a Municipal Commissioner] shall be invested by any such Municipality with all or any of the powers which can under this Act or under any rules in force at the time be lawfully delegated to him, in addition to such powers as are conferred on him by section 183 [4][or by Chapter XIIIA, as the case may be] ;

(iv) to require that all or any of the powers referred to in section 144 or in section 145 (if the conditions under which that section comes into operation exist) shall be delegated by any such Municipality, whether there be a chief officer or not, to the president, vice-president or any such councillor as the [1][Provincial Government] may deem fit.

(2) Any requisition issued to the Municipality under clause (i), (iii) or (iv) of sub-section (1) above shall be complied with within such time as the [1][Provincial Government] may in each case prescribe in that behalf.

Inquiry into municipal matters by Provincial Government.

[5][177A. (1) The Provincial Government may order an inquiry to be held by any officer appointed by it in this behalf into any matters concerning the municipal administration of any Municipality or any matters with respect to which its sanction, approval or consent is required under this Act.

Chief officer's power of appointment and punishment.

184. The chief officer shall have, independently of such powers as may be delegated to him by the Municipality in this behalf, power—

(a) to appoint—

(i) without the previous sanction of the Municipality, to any post the monthly salary for which as fixed by rules made under clause (b) of section 46 does not exceed Rs. 15, and

(ii) with such previous sanction in each case, to any post under the Municipality other than that of the health officer, engineer or chief accountant, and

(b) to fine, reduce, suspend or dismiss any municipal servant whose salary does not exceed Rs. 15, and, subject to the provisions of the rules for the time being in force, any other municipal officer or servant not being the health officer, engineer, or chief accountant, provided that in respect of any punishment other than a fine not exceeding one week's salary his order shall be subject to an appeal to the Municipality.

Delegation of chief officer's powers.

185. The chief officer may, with the sanction of the Municipality, delegate any of the powers conferred on him to any officer subordinate to him.

THE MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONER, HIS POWERS AND DUTIES.

186A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter XIII, the [2][Provincial Government] may make an appointment of a Municipal Commissioner— Appointment of Municipal Commissioner.

(a) for any municipal district which contains a population of not less than one hundred thousand inhabitants ; and

(b) for any other municipal district on the application of the Municipality in this behalf, provided that such application has been previously supported by not less than two-thirds of the whole number of Councillors.

(2) The population of a municipal district shall be deemed to be the population as ascertained in the latest census taken in such municipal district, unless the [2][Provincial Government] thinks fit to direct that a special census may be taken in such municipal district for the purpose of ascertaining the population, whereupon the population shall be deemed to be the population as ascertained in such special census. Population how ascertained.

(3) When the appointment of a Municipal Commissioner has been once made for a municipal district which contained at that time a population of not less than one hundred thousand inhabitants as ascertained in sub-section (2), such appointment shall not cease by reason only of the fact that the population of such municipal district has fallen short of one hundred thousand inhabitants. Subsequent reduction of population.

(4) On the appointment of a Municipal Commissioner the appointment of a chief officer, whether made under section 177 or section 182, shall forthwith terminate : provided that the appointment of a Municipal Commissioner shall not be made until such notice has been given to the chief officer, if any, as the terms of his appointment entitle him to receive and until the expiry of the period specified in such notice. Appointment of chief officer to cease on appointment of a Municipal Commissioner.

(5) The [2][Provincial Government] may at any time discontinue the appointment of a Municipal Commissioner for any municipal district for which such appointment has been made. Discontinuance of appointment.

186B. (1) A Municipal Commissioner shall hold office for a period of three years, in the first instance, and thereafter for such further period as the [2][Provincial Government] may in each case determine. Term of office.

(2) A Municipal Commissioner may be removed from office at any time by the [2][Provincial Government] if it shall appear to the [2][Provincial Government] that he is incapable of performing the duties of his office or has been guilty of any misconduct or neglect which renders his removal expedient. Removal from office.

[1] Chapter XIIIA was inserted by s. 30 of the Bombay District Municipal Amendment Act, 1914 (Bom. 8 of 1914).

[2] The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

(3) A Municipal Commissioner shall be forthwith removed from office by the [1][Provincial Government] on the application of the Municipality in this behalf, provided that such application has been previously supported by not less than three-fourths of the whole number of councillors.

Salary of Municipal Commissioner.

186C. (1) A Municipal Commissioner shall receive from the municipal fund such monthly salary as the Municipality shall, subject to the approval of the [1][Provincial Government], from time to time determine.

Prohibition of engagement in other business.

(2) A Municipal Commissioner shall devote his whole time and attention to the duties of his office as prescribed in this Act or in any other enactment for the time being in force, and shall not engage in any other profession, trade or business whatsoever:

Provided that he may at any time, with the sanction of the Municipality, serve on any committee constituted for the purpose of any local inquiry or for the furtherance of any object of local importance or interest.

Leave of absence.

186D. (1) The [1][Provincial Government] may, from time to time, with the assent of the Municipality, grant leave of absence for such period as [2][it] thinks fit to a Municipal Commissioner.

Leave allowance.

(2) The allowance to be paid to a Municipal Commissioner, while absent on leave, shall be of such amount, not exceeding his salary, as shall be fixed by the [1][Provincial Government];

Provided that, if the Municipal Commissioner is a salaried [3][servant of the Crown], the amount of such allowance shall be regulated by the rules for the time being in force relating to the leave allowances of salaried [4][servants of the Crown] of his class.

appointment of substitute.

(3) During any absence on leave, or other temporary vacancy in the office, of a Municipal Commissioner the [1][Provincial Government] may appoint a fit person to act as Municipal Commissioner. Every person so appointed shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed by or under this Act or by any other enactment for the time being in force on the person for whom he is appointed to act, and shall be subject to the same liabilities, restrictions and conditions to which the said person is liable.

Contributions from Municipality towards pension and leave allowances of Municipal Commissioner.

186E. (1) When a salaried [3][servant of the Crown] is appointed to be a Municipal Commissioner, the Municipality shall, unless specifically exempted wholly or in part from liability by the [5][Government in whose service he was employed immediately before the appointment], contribute to his pension and leave allowances to the extent required by proviso (b) to section 16.

(2) When a person other than a salaried [3][servant of the Crown] is appointed to be a Municipal Commissioner, the Municipality shall pay from the municipal fund the whole of his leave allowances fixed, as hereinbefore provided, by the [1][Provincial Government], and may, with the sanction of the [1][Provincial Government], grant him a pension or gratuity on retirement, or grant a compassionate allowance to his family on his death.

(iv) sub-section (2) of section 131,
(v) sub-section (1) of section 151, and
(vi) clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 156.

Delegation of powers of Municipal Commissioner.

186M. (1) With the sanction of the Municipality, the Municipal Commissioner may, by general or special order in writing, delegate to any municipal officer or servant any of the Municipal Commissioner's powers, duties, or functions under this Act or under any rule or by-law made here under except such as are conferred or imposed upon or vested in him under the following sections, namely :—

151, 161 and 186J.

(2) The exercise or discharge by any municipal officer or servant of any powers, duties or functions delegated to him under sub-section (1) shall be subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as may be prescribed in the said order, and also to control and revision by the Municipal Commissioner.

Power to execute contracts on behalf of Municipality.

186N. In any Municipality for which a Municipal Commissioner has been appointed, notwithstanding anything contained in section 40, the following provisions with respect to the making of contracts under or for any purpose of this Act shall have effect, namely :—

(a) every such contract shall be made on behalf of the Municipality by the Municipal Commissioner ;

(b) no such contract for any purpose which the Municipal Commissioner of not empowered by this Act to carry out without the approval or sanction is some other municipal authority, shall be made by him until or unless such approval or sanction has first of all been duly given ;

(c) no contract for the purchase, sale, lease, mortgage or other transfer of immovable property shall be entered into by the Municipal Commissioner except with the approval or sanction of the Municipality ;

(d) no contract which will involve an expenditure exceeding five hundred rupees shall be made by the Municipal Commissioner except with the approval or sanction of the Municipality ;

(e) every contract made by the Municipal Commissioner involving an expenditure exceeding two hundred and fifty rupees and not exceeding five hundred rupees shall be reported by him, within fifteen days after the same has been made, to the Municipality ;

(f) the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply to every variation or discharge of a contract as to an original contract.

Mode of executing contracts.

186O. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (6) and (7) of section 40, every contract entered into by a Municipal Commissioner on behalf of a Municipality shall be entered into in such manner and form as would bind such Municipal Commissioner if such contract were on his own behalf, and may in the like manner and form be varied or discharged :

Provided that—

(a) where any such contract, if entered into by a Municipal Commissioner, would require to be under seal, the same shall be sealed with the common seal of the Municipality, and

(b) every contract for the execution of any work or the supply of any materials or goods which will involve an expenditure exceeding five hundred rupees shall be in writing and shall be sealed with the common seal of the Municipality and shall specify the work to be done or the materials or goods to be supplied, as the case may be, the price to be paid for such work, materials or goods and, in the case of a contract for work, the time or times within which the same or specified portions thereof shall be completed.

(2) The common seal of the Municipality shall not be affixed to any contract, or other instrument, except in the presence of two members of the Managing Committee, who shall attach their signatures to the contract or instrument in token that the same was sealed in their presence. The signatures of the said members shall be distinct from the signatures of any witnesses to the execution of any such contract or instrument.

(3) No contract not executed in the manner provided in this section shall be binding on the Municipality.

Tenders to be invited for contracts involving expenditure exceeding Rs. 1,000.

186P. (1) Except as is otherwise provided in sub-section (3), a Municipal Commissioner shall, at least seven days before entering into any contract for the execution of any work or the supply of any materials or goods which will involve an expenditure exceeding one thousand rupees, give notice by advertisement in the local newspapers, inviting tenders for such contract.

(2) A Municipal Commissioner shall not be bound to accept any tender which may be made in pursuance of such notice, but may accept, subject to the provisions of clause (e) of section 186N, any of the tenders so made which appears to him, upon a view of all the circumstances, to be the most advantageous or may reject all the tenders submitted to him.

(3) The Municipality may authorize the Municipal Commissioner, for reasons which shall be recorded in their proceedings, to enter into a contract without inviting tenders as herein provided or without accepting any tender which he may receive after having invited them.

Security when to be taken for performance of contract.

186Q. A Municipal Commissioner shall require security for the due performance of every contract into which he enters under the last preceding section, and may, in his discretion, require security for the due performance of any other contract into which he enters under this Act.]

CHAPTER XIV.

NOTIFIED AREAS.

Constitution of notified areas

187. (1) The [1][Provincial Government] may by notification declare that with respect to some or all of the matters upon which a municipal fund may be expended under this Act, improved arrangements are required within a specified area, which, nevertheless, it is not expedient to constitute as a municipal district under section 7.

(2) An area in regard to which a notification has been issued under sub-section (1) is hereinafter called a notified area.

[1] The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

(3) No area shall be made a notified area unless it—

(i) contains a town which is the head-quarters of a taluka, or

(ii) is within a distance of one mile from a railway station :

and no such area shall include two or more towns or villages which are separated by an extent of more than one mile of land unoccupied by houses.

Power of Provincial Government to impose taxation and regulate expenditure of the proceeds thereof.

188. (1) The [1][Provincial Government] may by notification—

[2][(a) apply or adapt to any notified area the provisions of any section of this Act, or part of any such section, or of any rules in force or which can be imposed in any municipal district under the provisions of this Act, subject to such restrictions and modifications, if any, as [3][it] may think fit ;]

(b) impose in any such area any tax, which might be imposed therein under the provisions of this Act if the said area were a municipal district ;

(c) appoint a person or a committee for the purposes of the assessment and recovery of any tax imposed under clause (b), and in order to arrange for the due expenditure of the proceeds of such taxes, and for the preparation and maintenance of proper accounts, and generally for enforcing the provisions of any section [4][or rules applied or adapted] under clause (a) :

Provided that in any such area as is described in clause (i) of sub-section (3) of section 187, a committee shall be appointed for such purposes consisting of not less than three or more than five persons of whom a majority shall be residents of such area.

(2) The proceeds of any tax levied in any notified area under this section shall be expended only in some manner in which if the notified area were a municipal district, the municipal fund thereof might be expended.

Application of Act to notified areas

189. For the purposes of any section of this Act which may be [5][applied] to a notified area, the person or committee appointed for such area under section 188 shall be deemed to be a Municipality under this Act, and the area shall be deemed to be a municipal district.

Preliminaries to notification.

190. (1) Before issuing any notification under sub-section (1) of section 187 or under clause (a) or (b) of sub-section (1) of section 188, the [1][Provincial Government] shall, so far as may be, follow the procedure prescribed in section 8.

Power to cancel notification.

(2) The [1][Provincial Government] may at any time cancel any notification under section 187 or 188.

[1] The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

[2] Clause (a) was substituted by s. 2 (1) (a) of the Bombay District Municipal (Amendment) Act, 1903 (Bom. 3 of 1903).

[3] The word "it" was substituted for the word "he" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

[4] These words were substituted for the word "applied" by s. 2 (1) (b) of the Bombay District Municipal (Amendment) Act, 1903 (Bom. 3 of 1903).

[5] This word was substituted for the word "extended" by s. 2 (2), ibid.

Vesting, recovery and application of property, rights and liabilities of persons or committees appointed for areas ceasing to be notified areas.

[1]191. (1) When by reason of the cancellation, under sub-section (2) of section 190, of a notification issued under section 187 or 188, any area ceases to be a notified area, the property (including arrears of taxes) and rights which, prior to such cancellation, vested in the person or committee appointed for such area under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 188 shall, subject to all charges and liabilities affecting the same, vest in the local authority, if any, constituted for such area or within the limits of which such area is included, or if there be no such local authority, in [2][Government].

(2) Any arrears of taxes vesting in a local authority under sub-section (1) shall be recoverable under the provisions of the Act under which such local authority is constituted as if the taxes were imposed and recoverable under that Act :

Provided that steps to recover such arrears of taxes shall be taken within a period of three years from the date on which they so vest in the local authority.

(3) Where any property and rights vest in [2][Government] under sub-section (1) the proceeds thereof shall, after satisfying all charges and liabilities affecting the same, be applied for the benefit of the inhabitants of the said area in such manner as [3][the [4][State] Government] may think fit.

[5][CHAPTER XIV-A.

Provisions for conversion of a village panchayat into a municipality and vice-versa and for amalgamation and division of municipal districts.

Interpretation.

191A. For the purposes of this Chapter, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, the expression—

(a) " municipality " includes a person or persons appointed to exercise the powers and to perform the functions of a municipality under section 179 ;

(b) " village panchayat " includes a person or persons appointed to exercise the powers and to perform the functions of a village panchayat under section 102 of the Bombay Village Panchayats Act, 1933.

and the Sarpanch and Deputy Sarpanch of the village panchayat shall, respectively, be deemed to be the President and Vice President of the interim municipality;

(c) the unexpended balance of the village fund and the property (including arrears of rates, taxes, and fees) belonging to the village panchayat and all rights and powers which prior to such notification, vested in the village panchayat or in the State Government during the supersession of the village panchayat under section 102 of the Bombay Village Panchayats Act, 1933, as the case may be, shall, subject to all charges and liabilities affecting the same, vest in the interim municipality as the municipal fund until the new municipality is constituted in pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 191C; Bom. VI of 1933.

(d) any appointment, notification, notice, tax, order, scheme, licence, permission, rule, by-law or form made, issued, imposed or granted under the Bombay Village Panchayats Act, 1933, immediately before the said date in respect of such local area shall continue in force and be deemed to have been made, issued, imposed or granted in respect of the municipal district until it is superseded or modified by any appointment, notification, notice, tax, order, scheme, licence, permission, rule, by-law or form made, issued imposed or granted under this Act; Bom. VI of 1933.

(e) all budget estimates, assessments, assessment lists, valuations or measurements made or authenticated under the Bombay Village Panchayats Act, 1933, immediately before the said date in respect of such local area shall be deemed to have been made or authenticated under this Act; Bom. VI of 1933.

(f) all debts and obligations incurred and all contracts made by or on behalf of the village panchayat immediately before the said date and subsisting on the said date shall be deemed to have been incurred or made by the municipality in exercise of the powers conferred on it by this Act;

(g) all officers and servants in the employ of the village panchayat immediately before the said date shall be officers and servants of the municipality under this Act and shall, until other provision is made in accordance with the provisions of this Act, receive salaries and allowances and be subject to the conditions of service to which they were entitled or subject on such date:

Provided that it shall be competent to the municipality, subject, however, to the previous sanction of the State Government, to discontinue the services of any officer or servant who, in its opinion, is not necessary or suitable to the requirements of the municipal service, after giving such officer or servant such notice as is required to be given by the terms of his employment and every officer or servant whose services are discontinued, shall be entitled to such leave, pension, provident fund and gratuity as he would have been entitled to take or receive on being invalided out of service as if the village panchayat, in the employ of which he was, had not ceased to exist;

(h) all proceedings pending at the said date before the village panchayat shall be deemed to be transferred to and continued by the municipality;

(i) all appeals pending before the village panchayat shall, so far as may be practicable, be disposed of as if such local area had been included in the municipal district when they were filed;

(j) all prosecutions instituted by or on behalf of the village panchayat and all suits or other legal proceedings instituted by or against the village panchayat or any officer of the village panchayat pending at the said date shall be continued by or against the municipality as if such local area had been included in the municipal district when such prosecutions, suits or proceedings were instituted.

Term of office of members of interim municipality and their powers.

199C. (1) The State Government shall, within a period not exceeding one year from the date on which the interim municipality has been constituted, take steps in accordance with section 11 for the purpose of determining the number of councillors of, and for holding election for, a new municipality.

(2) The councillors of the interim municipality shall hold office until the date immediately preceding the date of the first meeting of the new municipality.

(3) Any vacancy in the office of the interim municipality shall be filled as soon as it conveniently may be, by appointment by the State Government.

(4) The other provisions of this Act shall mutatis mutandis apply to the interim municipality and its councillors.

(5) If any difficulty arises,—

(i) in the constitution of the interim municipality or the new municipality which succeeds it, or

(ii) in giving effect to the provisions of this section, the State Government may by order, as occasion may require, do, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the Bombay Village Panchayats Act, 1933, anything which appears to it to be necessary to remove the difficulty.

Bom. VI of 1933.

Conversion of a municipality into a village panchayat.

Councillors to vacate office on conversion of municipality into village panchayat.

191D. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or in the Bombay Local Boards Act, 1923, when any local area ceases to be a municipal district by virtue of a notification under section 4 and is declared to be a village under section 4 of the Bombay Village Panchayats Act, 1933, the following consequences shall ensue namely :—

Bom. VI of 1923.

Bom. VI of 1933.

(a) the municipality of such local area shall cease to exist or to function ;

(b) all councillors of the said municipality shall vacate office ;

Effect of amalgamation of municipal districts.

191E. When two or more municipal districts cease to be municipal districts and the local areas constituting such municipal districts are amalgamated and declared to be one municipal district (hereinafter in this section referred to as the amalgamated municipal district) by virtue of a notification under section 4 with effect from the date on which such notification is issued (hereinafter in this section referred to as the said date) the following consequences shall ensue, namely :—

(a) the municipalities of such local areas shall cease to exist or to function, and all the councillors of such municipalities shall vacate office ;

(b) all powers and duties of such municipalities shall be exercised and performed by such person or persons (herein called the administrator or administrators) as the State Government appoints in this behalf ;

(c) the unexpended balance of the municipal funds and all the properties (including arrears of rates, taxes and fees) belonging to such municipalties and all rights and powers which, prior to the said date, vested in such municipalities shall, subject to all charges and liabilities affecting the same, vest as the municipal fund—

(i) in the administrator or administrators until the municipality for the amalgamated municipal district is constituted (herein referred to as the amalgamated municipality), and holds its first meeting under sub-section (2) of section 17; and

(ii) thereafter in the amalgamated municipality;

(d) the unexpended balance of the municipal funds and all the properties (including arrears of rates, taxes and fees) shall, until the amalgamated municipality is constituted and holds its first meeting, be utilised for the benefit of the inhabitants of such local areas in such manner as the administrator or administrators may think fit;

(e) any appointment, notification, notice, tax, order, scheme, licence, permission, rule, by-law or form made, issued, imposed or granted in respect of such local areas and in force on the said date shall continue in force and be deemed to have been made, issued, imposed or granted in respect of the amalgamated municipal district until it is superseded or modified by any appointment, notification, notice, tax, order, scheme, licence, permission, rule, by-law or form made, issued, imposed or granted under this Act;

(f) all budget estimates, assessments, assessment lists, valuations or measurements made or authenticated by such municipalities immediately before the said date shall be deemed to have been made or authenticated in respect of the amalgamated municipal district under this Act;

(g) all debts and obligations incurred and all contracts made by or on behalf of such municipalities immediately before the said date and subsisting on the said date shall be deemed to have been incurred and made by the amalgamated municipality in exercise of the powers conferred on it by this Act;

(h) all officers and servants in the employ of such municipalities immediately before the said date shall be officers and servants of the amalgamated municipality and shall, until other provision is made in accordance with this Act, receive salaries and allowances and be subject to the conditions of service to which they were entitled or subject on such date:

Provided that it shall be competent to the administrator or administrators or the amalgamated municipality, subject however, to the previous sanction of the State Government to discontinue the services of any officer or servant who, in his, their or its opinion, is not necessary or suitable to the requirements of the municipal service in respect of the amalgamated municipal district, after giving such officer or servant such notice as is required to be given by the terms of his employment and every officer or servant whose services are discontinued, shall be entitled to such leave, pension, provident fund, and gratuity, as he would have been entitled to take or receive, on being invalided out of service, as if the municipalities in the employ of which he was, had not ceased to exist;

(i) all proceedings pending at the said date before such municipalities shall be deemed to be transferred to and continued by the administrator or administrators or the amalgamated municipality, as the case may be;

(j) all appeals pending at the said date before such municipalities shall, so far as may be practicable, be disposed of by the administrator or administrators or the amalgamated municipality, as the case may be

(k) all prosecutions instituted by or on behalf of such municipalities and all suits or other legal proceedings instituted by or against such municipalities or any officer of such municipalities pending at the said date shall be continued by or against the amalgamated municipality.

Division of a municipal district into two or more municipal districts.

Effect of division of municipal district.

191F. (1) Where any local area comprised within the limits of a municipal district ceases to be a municipal district and is declared as constituting two or more new municipal districts by virtue of a notification under section 4, with effect from the date on which such notification is issued (hereinafter in this section referred to as the said date), the following consequences shall ensue, namely :—

(a) the municipality constituted in respect of such local area shall cease to exist or to function and all the councillors of the municipality shall vacate office ;

(b) until municipalities are constituted for the new municipal districts, the State Government shall appoint a person or persons to exercise the powers and perform the functions of the municipality for each of the new municipal districts ;

(c) the unexpended balance of the municipal fund and all the property (including arrears of rates, taxes and fees) belonging to such municipality shall vest in the new municipalities in such proportion and in such manner as the State Government may direct ;

(d) the officers and servants of such municipality shall be allocated by the State Government between the new municipalities in such manner as the State Government may direct ;

(e) subject to clauses (a) to (d), the provisions of section 191E shall mutatis mutandis apply to the administrator or administrators or the new municipalities and their councillors.

(2) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of section 191E and this section, the State Government may by order, as the occasion may require, do anything which appears to it to be necessary to remove the difficulty.
